NELSON COUNTY, KENTUCKY-MARRIAGES

Samuel Abbot

Mica Belew

8-2-1790

Joseph Abbott born February 4, 1820 and died 1888.

Married first Matilda----born November 4, 1830 and died July 8, 1904. Married April 12, 1849

Cynthia Fisk was a land owner in Warren or Butler County, Ohio around 1815-1820 indicating she was a widow at that time-I have an old memo stating "Cynthia Abbot, the mother of Daniel Fisk died-----" I have the dates but do not recall it at this time. Again in Butler County, I found where a Cynthia Fisk married a Stephens & this could have been Daniel's mother remarrying or could also have been a daughter.

There was also other Abbots in Warren or Butler County, who were appointed administrators of Amos Fisk's Estate who was supposed to have been of Cincinnati. Who was Amos Fisk-was he Daniel's father divorced from Cynthia or was he a grandfather or an uncle of Daniel-I think Fanny Fisk Joslin named a son Amos Fisk Joslin-so he had some close connection-

I mention it because you may run into Fisks, especially if you are descended thru Elam-Fanny. Dates are very very important to identify exact persons from others of same names etc.

I really hope we can work out something nice between us on this subject & I trust can hear from you very soon-Let me have your material in any form you have it & I can straighten it out-Write me at my home address-1700 S. Jefferson Ave., Springfield Mo.

A WORD OF EXPLANATION

If you will refer to your address label, you will see some information following your name. This indicates the final issue on your subscription. If it says for instance - AB/S88 - that means you have subscribed for one year, and the Spring 1988 issue will be the last one on your subscription. If it says AB/F87, this is the only issue you will receive, unless you wish to renew. I include an extra page in each newsletter, with space for any queries you'd like to have placed in the following issue. This also has space for renewals, orders of back issues, etc. for your convenience. I hope this clears up any questions you have. Let me know if you need more information. Meanwhile, I really appreciate any data you would like to send in for inclusion in the newsletters. If we all work together, we can answer questions, and possibly solve some real problems for each other.

"ALL ABOUT ABBOTTS"

SPRING 1988

Publisher: Margaret Fenton Gardner, P.O. Box 430, Midway, Utah 84049-0430

Dear Abbott researchers:

After a few trips to Salt Lake City to collect more information, and some nice mail from all of you, I'm ready to begin another newsletter. I am really happy with the response to the first issue, and think we may be doing something right.

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR THE DONATIONS

CURTIS ABBOTT - SETH ABBOTT - VERNA HOARD

With the postal increase, I can really use the help.

NEW AND RENEWAL

CURTIS ABBOTT - GEORGE C. ABBOTT - SETH ABBOTT - ROYALE CRABTREE

AUDREY IACONE - JAMES KELLEY - KATHALEEN KICHTY

JOYCE KLEPACK - RITA LITCHFIELD - BETTY MABEE - EILEEN MUNGER

*Even though the newsletters don't come out until late Spring and Fall, I begin work on them late in September and March, so if you have questions to include in the issues, please get them to me early. I hate to make anyone wait for their answers. Thank you for your consideration.

Correction, page 1, Fall 1987 - under my line - Horace S. FENTON was born 6 October 1804, not 1827. Also - George Washington FENTON, not Washinton. I thought I had proofread everything, but missed these.

FROM OUR SUBSCRIBERS

CURTIS W. ABBOTT, 1 QUEENS DR. SO. NEWARK, OHIO 43055-2244

Nathan ABBOTT Jr., son of Nathan and Lydia HATCH ABBOTT, born late 1770's, early 1780's. When? Where? Married to whom? When? Where? Lived Pittsford, VT., early 1800's, Stockbridge, VT., 1830. Had possibly nine or more children, including Jason, Lorenzo Dow, Ira. Jason was in Cuyahoga Co., OH in 1840; Lorenzo in NY in 1830's, Newark, OH 1840's. Please help Curtis

*I have indexed the Fall 1987 issue, Curtis, thanks to this wonderful computer. It takes longer still than doing the newsletters, and contains 14 pages, but I'm so glad to be able to finally find a way. I will be numbering the issues on a yearly basis - page 1-80, and have separate index for each year.

In a book written by Horace FENTON about his wife Rheuemma ABBOTT's family, although he visited the various families several times in the 1850's and 1860's, he didn't share too much - such as the first names of his in-laws! Kathleen deduces that Rheuemma's father died young, as her mother remarried. Anyway, Kathleen does have this much on the ABBOTT's.

CAROL SCHROEDER, RT. 1, BOX 1059, ELLENSBURG, WA 98926

Carol had machine copies made of the 1860 census for the city of Medford, Steele Co., MN, and found two families listed together, one being her MC CRORY-GARDNER relations, the other being an ABBOTT family next door. I'm listing the two neighbors -

434-407	"W" or "M" ABBOTT	- age 32 - M - Farmer - 1000 - NH
408	M.L.ABBOTT	age 28 - M - Farmer - 1000 - NH
	Sarah W. ABBOTT	- age 25 - F (b.ca 1835)	NH
	Martha N. ABBOTT	- age 3 - F (b.ca 1857)	MN
	Mary ABBOTT	- age 1 - F	MN
	Lois ABBOTT	- age 58 - F (b.ca 1802)	NH
435-409	Sarah MC CRORY	- age 46 - F (b.1814)	Ireland
	Charles MC CRORY	- age 26 - M	Canada
	Wm MC CRORY	- age 24 - M	Canada
	John MC CRORY	- age 16(?)M	NY
	Robert MC CRORY	- age 18 - M	NY
	Susannah MC CRORY	- age 1 - F	NY
	Catherine MC CRORY	- age 9 - F (b.ca 1851-2)	NY
	Caroline MC CRORY	- age 6 - F	NY

Catherine MC CRORY md. William GARDNER, and was Carol's grgrm. Sarah MC CRORY was her grgrgrmother. She states that the family was migrating from Ireland, Canada, New York, Michigan, Wisconsin, lower Minnesota, finally to Washington State before 1888. She is of the opinion that Lois ABBOTT may have been the sister to Sarah MC CRORY. Sarah's husband was dead in 1860. She was a LAVERY, born in Ireland. She had stayed near relatives as she moved, and could possibly have been related to these ABBOTTS.

Carol has an obit for Caroline MC CRORY, who went west to Washington. Robert MC CRORY stopped in Douglas Co., MN, established a feed store, gave a window to the Methodist Church, and left a little of himself in the Township of Hudson, MN.

JUST ARRIVED

Is he the son of David ABBOTT, Methodist preacher from Salem, NJ who d. 1798 and md. to Ann ____? Who were the offspring of David and Susannah?

June 1845 in Shelby Co., IL, B. Franklin Hudson married (2nd) to Margaret S. Perryman, b. ca 1826 & dau. of Allen & Millie (Ward) Perryman. Marriage performed by Miles Abbet - undetermined if there is any connection between Levina Abbott & Miles Abbet. Six children were born of this second marriage between 1847 & 1855.

In 1868, James Hanson was appointed by the 17th Judicial Circuit Court (Shelby Co.) as, "Conservator of Franklin Hudson, who is a distracted person". At this time the B. Franklin Hudson family, with the seven youngest children, were living on a farm owned by B. Franklin Hudson consisting of the North half of the NE 1/4 of Section 4 in Township 11NR2 East, excepting 23 off of the West end of said tract. Also the SE 1/4 of the NE 1/4 of Section 4, Township 11NR2E. About 105 acres-approx. 40 acres of said land was cleared & part under cultivation. Balance of said land in good timber.

In 1859, James Hanson petitioned the Court for permission to sell 20 acres off of the West end of the remaining portion of the N 1/2 of the NE 1/4 of Section 4, Twp. 11NR2E - it being all timber & could be sold without injury to the balance of the premises & would bring about $20 per acre. He further stated that, "the rents & profits of the farm were totally insufficient to support & educate the family of Franklin Hudson & that the said Hudson is now owing about $300 of just indebtedness mostly for necessities for the family".

29 Nov. 1859, James Hanson files a petition to the Court asking for Letters of Administration in the Estate of Franklin Hudson, deceased. Petition states, "that on Sunday the thirteenth day of November, 1859, Franklin Hudson, late of Shelby Co., IL, departed this life, intestate. That deceased left surviving, Margaret Hudson, his widow, & Permelia A. Perryman, Martha Allsman, Albert P. Hudson, Emily C. McCabe, Milley, Franklin, Elizabeth A., Silas, Miles, Pliny & Perry L. Hudson, his children & heirs at law". Franklin Hudson probably buried at the Methodist Cem. in Tower Hill Twp. located south of the Hudson farm, though there is no tombstone for him & no record of his death filed with the County Clerk of Shelby Co., IL. Note that Harvey Hudson is not mentioned & probably died before 29 Nov. 1859.

23 Mar. 1865, Letters of Guardianship issued to Joseph Moses for the minor children of Franklin Hudson, deceased as follows: Franklin Hudson, b. 1 Nov. 1847; Betsy Ann Hudson, b. 11 Apr. 1849; Silas Hudson, b. 15 July 1850; Miles Hudson, b. 12 Apr. 1852; Perry L. Hudson, b. Oct. 1855. Note Pliny Hudson is not mentioned and probably died between 29 Nov. 1859 & 23 Mar 1865.

FROM JOYCE KLEPACK

HENRY ABBOTT

Henry ABBOTT, fourth son of Jonathan and Nancy (SMALLY) ABBOTT, was born in the Empire State in 1827. We find Henry at home with his parents in Varick, Seneca Co., New York in the year 1830. re: 2 male under 5 yrs old - 3 males 5-10 ... Sometime between this time and 1845, Jonathan and Nancy brought their family to the State of Michigan.... In 1850, Henry, a young man of 22 is still at home helping farm his father's land. Four years later, he married - Flora FENTON, whose family came to Michigan and settled in Madison Twp. on land they had to clear. Seth FENTON bought sections 31 and 32 in Madison twp., built buildings on land he had changed from dense forest to a fine productive farm land.

Henry and Flora ABBOTT raised three children: Ada, born Jan 1855; Clara, born 28 May 1858, and one son, Edward H. born 22 Sep 1860. (at this time, Henry lived in Palmyra Twp).

Little is known about Ada, except that she married Lorenzo CHITTENDEN, and had one daughter, Iva, who later changed her name to Eva, we were told.

Edward married Berdie GOLDSMITH, 23 Nov 1889, and lived in Fairfield. He was a tanner by trade, but lived to be only 35 years old, dying of typhoid fever in 1895.

Clara it seems is the one that married and stayed in the Madison area. She married 1 Sep 1883, George William BRIGGS. Henry, Flora and the small family lived with Flora FENTON's father in 1870, so Clara was something like 23 when she married. George and Clara raised two girls, Nellie Alice, b. 1 Jun 1885, married and moved to Niles, Michigan, raising her family there as we were told by her sister; Dora Henriette, b. 17 Oct 1887. Dora was still living in Madison Twp. in 1978, where we found her one sunny summer day, and she hoped to be able to celebrate her birthday, Oct 1979, when she would be 92 years old. We had a long talk and interview with Dora and her son, "Sell" - given name, Leslie Sell.

Leslie owned and operated a coal and stove store "LESLIE SELL" - Quality Coal - Coal and Wood Burning Equipment - Sand Creek, Michigan.

In talking to Leslie and Dora, we found lands belonging in their family were sold to Sand Creek for a school, also a Post Office, which George W. BRIGGS was postmaster of for a spell. Dora had lived in the Sand Creek area most of her life, and knew many other members of other ABBOTT families. But like all good times, and good visits, they have to come to an end, and ours did also, but we came back home with a picture and a face we could relate to. One of our ABBOTT names now became a person to us. Have been searching since 1940.

FROM JOYCE KLEPACK

Marcellus Edward "Edd" ABBOTT, was born in Lenawee Co., MI, to a pioneer family from the Empire State of New York. His parents, William and Lovina (STUCK) ABBOTT, came to Michigan in 1847, or thereabouts. A young married couple with many dreams. They settled in the southwest part of Fairfield Twp., Lenawee County. Here they raised five children with the father passing away in his 35th year, but Lovina being from a strong family type family herself, kept her little family together and never remarried.

William married Lovina STUCK/STOCK in Fayette Twp., Seneca Co., NY, 14 Jan 1847. Lovina being the daughter of Benjamin and Margaret (WADE) STUCK/STOCK. She was born in Fayette Twp., 7 Jan 1825, second daughter of 8 children. Her father being born in Northumberland Co., PA. He md Margaret WADE in Pennsylvania and came to New York sometime before 1808/10. Benjamin's father, Matthias STOCK/STUCK. Spelling was changed to STUCK in 1830.

The father of William ABBOTT was Jonathan ABBOTT, and his mother was Nancy SMALL(E)Y. Both families came to Michigan from NY and settled in Fairfield Twp., Lenawee County.

There is still very little information on the parents of Jonathan and Nancy, we are still searching and have not given up hope. The feeling of this family member is that one Daniel ABBOTT, listed on early census records of Romulus, Fayette Twp., Seneca Co. NY, is the father of Jonathan, but still have to prove this.

William was the first child and son of Jonathan and Nancy, and first of a family of eleven. However, Jonathan was married three times, and had fifteen children in all. Most of these children settled in some area of Michigan. The oldest daughter, Eleanor ABBOTT HAGAMAN, came with her husband in 1835, to Michigan, and settled in Fairfield Twp., on Lyons Rd. in Lenawee County.

This brings us to the birth of William ABBOTT, which took place in Seneca Co., NY, 28 Oct 1821. He died at home in Fairfield Twp., Lenawee Co., MI, 31 Oct 1856. Lovina STUCK ABBOTT died 9 Nov 1913, Seneca Twp. Both are buried in the Hagaman Cemetery, found on Lyons Road in Lenawee Co. Jonathan and Nancy SMALL ABBOTT are buried there also.

Marcellus Edward ABBOTT married Sarah Evaline INMAN, in Wauseon, Fulton Co., OH, 9 Sep 1873. Sarah was the daughter of John James and Dorothy (BEAL/BEALS) INMAN/INMON. Marcellus and Sarah settled near Weston, Michigan. They had nine children and stayed in the Hudson area, Lenawee County until the children were nearly grown. The eldest son, Bertie J., married and lived in the Adrian area for some time. The eldest daughter, Elsie L., married and moved to Lions, Ohio. Another daughter, Leliah L., married and lived in the area as well. About 1888/9, Marcellus brought the rest of the family to Jonesville, Hillsdale Co., MI. (Joyce sent much more on the other families, but I must condense this for the newsletter. Thanks Joyce. More ABBOTT info ----

FROM OUR SUBSCRIBERS

GEORGE C. ABBOTT, 1604 CLAREMONT CT., PULASKI, VIRGINIA 24301

George seeks information on Garland ABBOTT, his grgrgrandfather, who was perhaps born in Hanover Co., Virginia, born about 1770, died in Bedford Co., Virginia, March 1842. His father might have been either Nathan or Matthias ABBOTT, who lived in Hanover Co. Garland married Nancy TERRELL, from Orange Co., Virginia, abt. 1809. (Most Hanover County records were destroyed during the Civil War.)

George sends this article, which he found in "Hardesty's Historical and Geographical Encyclopedia", (Special Virginia edition), pub. in 1884. -

DABNEY ABBOTT—owns and farms a fine valley estate of 228 acres on Elk creek, in Claremont district, Bedford county. He was born in Campbell county, Virginia, January 7, 1820, and was about seven years old when his parents, Garland and Nancy (Terrell) Abbott, made their home in Bedford county. His father died in March, 1842, and his mother in June, 1861. In Campbell county, September 30, 1850, Dabney Abbott wedded Serinda J. Marsh, who was born in that county, November 14, 1834, a daughter of Edmond and Pernelia (Carter)Marsh. Her parents are both deceased, her mother's death occurring in November, 1883. The birth record of the twelve children of Dabney Abbott and wife is: E. G., born July 25, 1853; Sarah P. C., August 7, 1855; Julia A., February 15, 1857; John T., August 19, 1858; William D., May 18, 1860; Joseph J., January 4, 1862; Tellman A. and Serinda A., April 13, 1865; Marcus O., December 25, 1866; Warton B., October 22, 1868; Eunera J., April 24, 1870; Blanch L., December 16, 1875. John T. died June 20, 1890. The living children are all in Bedford county. Mr. Abbott enlisted in April, 1862, and served in Company F, 28th Virginia Infantry, until June 27th following, when, at Cold Harbor, he received a wound which disabled him, causing the loss of one finger and part of his hand. He served on detached duty from that time till the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia. His postoffice address is Perrowville, Bedford county, Virginia.

Some of Dabney ABBOTT's brothers moved from Virginia, and their whereabouts are unknown.

MRS. CAROL DUVALL, 1607 W. FIFTH, COFFEYVILLE, KANSAS 67337

Carol is not related to ABBOTs that she is aware of, but is researching one who was. He was an artist, who in 1790 painted and Engraving, and gave it to the Society of Goffers at Blackheath, and signed the art work with his name Lemuel Francis ABBOTT.

She has one of his art works, and would love to know much more about him. In the background of the picture, she believes is St. Andrews Golf House, near St. Andrews, Scotland. They think Mr. ABBOTT was either from Scotland or upper England, and loved golf.

Anyone know anything about Lemuel Francis ABBOTT? Please write Carol.

QUERY: Audrey is seeking info on the gap between David ABBOTT (1) who died in 1798(?) and her grgrgrandfather, Benjamin ABBOTT (3), who was born ca 1811 in New Jersey, and who died after 1870 in Allegheny Co., Pennsylvania. There is a David ABBOTT, who may be the son of David (1) and father of Benjamin (3). Does anyone know the facts on this? (Audrey sent some pages on this line, which I will include later in this issue - Please check this)

Audrey edits a family newsletter for the WHITESIDE, WOLFINGER, MORGAN and BARRETT lines (her mother's). ABBOTT is her father's line.

Thank you for the kind words Audrey. It always helps to know when I'm doing something right. I really appreciate any encouragement.

BETTY MURPHY MABEE, 4545 YERBA SANTA DR., SAN DIEGO, CA 92115

Betty is looking for data on ABBOTTS, BROWNS and MASTERSONS of Spencer Co., Indiana and Brown Co., Ohio. They seem to be intermarried. Is Lewis ABBOTT, who md. Deborah JENNINGS, 21 Jan 1830, somehow related to James Abbott BROWN, who md. Sarah MASTERSON, 12 Mar 1822 in Brown Co. Ohio? Does anyone know who the parents of James Abbott BROWN were? Also, parents of Sarah MASTERSON? Please help Betty.

MARILYN MC MILLAN, 818 SOUTH THIRD, BOZEMAN, MT 59715

Marilyn is looking for a book on ABBOTT genealogy, which includes information on Thomas ABBOTT, b. ca 1785 in Delaware. She needs something that deals with New England/Delaware ABBOTTS, but that goes as far as the late 18th century. Anyone know what book this may be? Please help.

MRS. GLENN E. MITCHELL, 632 MIDDLE RINCON RD., SANTA ROSA, CA 95409

Irene seeks more knowledge about Elnathan George ABBOTT, b. 28 Feb 1801, (NY?), d. 1873, Dorset, Wisconsin, md. Belinda DICKINSON, (b. 6 Apr 1799, d. 1889, Dorset, WI). They had 5 children born in Tioga Co. Pennsylvania, 1819-1840.

ABBOTT's, along with other family members in three groups, 1855, 1858 and 1860 - came and settled in Wisconsin.

Thanks for the nice compliments. I'm happy to help when I can, but some people are really hard to find. Good luck to you, Irene.

PAT OSBORN, 6401 GRANDVIEW DR., BOISE, IDAHO 83709

Pat would like to find parents of David Patterson ABBOTT, born 1 Jan 1808, Lawrenceburg, Indiana. He md. Celestina R. PHELPS, Oct 1826, probably in Indiana. They moved to Savannah, Missouri in 1842, and in 1849 he went to the California gold fields. He died 15 Dec 1849, Sacramento City, California Territory.

(There are films on people who went to California for that period, Pat. Try the local LDS genealogy library films. They're in Salt Lake City, listing censuses, etc. Of course the federal census for 1840 would have to be for Missouri, and he was dead in 1850, but there may be other records listing goldminers and their families).

MRS. JOHN P. WARDEN, 4001 S. IVANHOE LANE, ENGLEWOOD, CO 80111

Frances seeks -

1. Correspondence with descendants of William H. and Hope L. (CHRISTIE) ABBOTT, of Andover, Massachusetts, 1900.
2. Correspondence with descendants of Benjamin and Mary (SNOOK) ABBOTT, md. Amwell, NJ, pre-1760.

Those with Massachusetts and New Jersey ABBOTTS please contact Frances.

LAURIE YOUNG, 3870 SHERINGHAM DR., BOISE, IDAHO 83704

Laurie is looking for a library that might have a copy of the book, "The Family Tree of Ezra ABBOTT", by Stanley H. Abbott, Nebraska - CS71.A12 1960, Library of Congress. She has a 21 page autobiography by a grandson of an Ezra ABBOTT of Norwalk, Connecticut line, and was wondering if they are the same person. Her Ezra was supposed to have been in the Revolutionary War, but she can only find an Ezra ABBOTT of New Hampshire in that war, and he isn't the correct man. Laurie sent page one of an autobiography on Stephen Conger ABBOTT, which I will include as far as it goes later in this issue. Thanks and good luck to you, Laurie.

A Biography of the Rev. Benjamin Abbott

James Abbott (1) was born in Somersetshire, England about 1660. He emigrated to the new world about 1690-95. He settled in Newtown, Long Island and married Martha. Hempstead Town Records mention a "Jeams Abitt" in 1718 and in 1721. They had 5 sons and two daughters:

James (2) - lived at Foster's Meadow near Hempstead on Long Island; settled in Salem County, NJ.; see photocopy of material on his descendants.

Isaac - settled in Hunterdon County, NJ.

★ Benjamin (1) - m. Hannah Burroughs; settled in Bucks County, PA; had 5 sons and 2 daughters.

Daniel - b. about 1705-10; moved to Conn. about 1730 where he married and had a family.

William - settled in South Jersey.

Elizabeth - m. Thomas Whitson, Jr.

Daughter - nothing known about her.

Benjamin Abbott (1) was the third son of James Abbott (1). He moved to New Jersey where he married Hannah Burroughs, the daughter of John Burroughs who was Sheriff of Hunterdon County. The couple moved to Long Island, resided there, and had two sons and one daughter. After this, Benjamin sold his farm and bought a "plantation of four hundred acres of good land and lived in credit - where he had three sons and one daughter more." This property was located in Upper Makefield Twp., Bucks County. Benjamin Abbott was listed for 1701 in Warrants and Surveys of the Province of Pennsylvania including the three Lower Counties. Bucks County Tax Records show a Benjamin Abit in 1733 and a Benjamin Abet in 1742.

The children of Benjamin and Hannah were:

James (3) - b. NY

Edith - b. NY

Burroughs - b. 1736 (?) in PA; m. Aug. 25, 1764 to Elizabeth Thompson in Gloucester County, NJ.

Joseph - b. PA

John - b. PA

Hannah - b. PA

Hannah died of a "nervous complaint," and Benjamin died six weeks later of small pox. The will of Benjamin Abbit (1) was dated Dec. 23, 1746, but the will was not proved until 1747. Executors were John Burroughs, father-in-law, and Thomas Whitson, brother-in-law. Witnesses were Joseph Bakor and Chas. Bryan.

The principal money of the estate was divided equally between his seven children. One extra part of his estate plus 20 pounds went to his eldest son, James. The value of the contents of the high case of drawers was to be divided equally between his two daughters, Edith and Hannah. A two page inventory was attached to the will (I have a copy of the will).

The second child of Benjamin and Hannah Abbott was Benjamin Abbott, destined to become a Methodist circuit preacher of some prominence in New Jersey. Benjamin (2) began his life on a farm on Long Island in 1732. His family moved to a large farm in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. His father's will stipulated that his sons should all learn trades, so some time after his father's death, he was sent to Philadelphia to learn the hatter trade. He would have been about age 15. There he fell into bad company, "card-playing, cock-fighting, and many other evil practices." He once spent the night in a Quaker burial ground, sleeping between the graves, feeling at that time "no fear of God or man." He left his master and went to Jersey - probably Salem County - to work for a brother who was a farmer, married there, received his inheritance, rented and stocked a farm, and "worked hard and got a comfortable living for my family."

Benjamin Abbott married early in life to Mary (SNOOK?) and settled in Pittsgrove Township in Salem County. His wife was a member of the Presbyterian Church in Daretown in 1755, and occasionally he accompanied her to church. In 1772, Benjamin was a hired laborer for Benjamin Vanmeter, a prominent farmer in that neighborhood.

He is reported to have been a rough man of wild and immoral habits - bad habits acquired during his Philadelphia days. He must have felt guilty about his sinful ways, because he experienced dreams of Hell. He also had dreams of heaven. On October 12, 1772, it seems that he experienced a "glorious" conversion, embraced God, and six months later joined the Methodist faith. His wife and 6 of his children followed his lead.

Benjamin preached first to his family, then to his neighbors, then throughout Salem County. He was a passionate and zealous preacher. Some thought that he was crazy, but many others were converted. The Revolutionary War brought increased persecution of the Methodists. Many were suspected of being Loyalists because they had such strong ties with their religious brothers in England.

When the government was raising a militia, Benjamin preferred preaching to fighting. He paid a sum of money sufficient to obtain another man to go in his place. He thought that his family should move to a safer, friendlier place. They moved to Mannington, Salem County, in 1774 or 1775. Their son, Benjamin, died there at the age of 14 years. Benjamin seems to have moved through war-ravaged New Jersey virtually untouched. Once he was almost arrested by soldiers, but he escaped.

In 1781, the Abbott family moved to Lower Penns Neck where they rented a farm (have a copy of the lease). Mary Abbott was in poor health for 7 years; she died on July 14, 1788.

In April, 1789, Benjamin Abbott was ordained and became an official itinerant preacher for the Methodist Episcopal Church. This was sanctioned by the Trenton Conference for New Jersey. Rev. Abbott was appointed first to the Dutchess Circuit of New York.

By now, Benjamin was an old man of 57 years. He travelled on horseback in Dutchess County, New York and on Long Island. He rode the Trenton Circuit and the Salem Circuit in New Jersey. He also rode in eastern Pennsylvania and in Maryland. His son, David Abbott, became an itinerant preacher in 1781. He preached in Delaware and in Maryland until 1784.

Rev. Abbott kept a journal of his activities, especially of his itinerant ministry, and this was published posthumously by his Methodist friends. The title of this book is The Experience and Gospel Labours of the Rev. Benjamin Abbott of North America written by Himself: To Which is annexed a Narrative of His Life and Death by John Ffirth. Several editions of this work were published at various places and times by several different printers.

The Rev. Benjamin ABBOTT was a zealous preacher and a witness for Christ. As an "exhorter and weaver of spells over his listeners, Abbott had no equal in his time." As a local preacher for 17 years, he was instrumental in helping to organize and build several Methodist societies. These include the churches at Pittsgrove (Friendship Methodist), Upper Penns Neck (Perkintown Methodist), Lower Penns Neck (Trinity Congregation), and in Salem (First Methodist Church).

Rev. ABBOTT was a man of child-like simplicity, possessing a great faith and confidence in God. Although he was not an educated man, and his language was not refined, he was a powerful speaker who could sway audiences and cause men and women to fall into trances that would last for several hours - there have been several testimonies to this fact.

The Minutes of the Philadelphia Conference, M.E. Church in 1796, recording his death, say "Perhaps he was one of the wonders of America. No man's copy; an uncommon zealot for the blessed work of sanctification."

Abel STEVENS concludes his story about ABBOTT by saying, "He had led hosts of souls from the lowest abysses of vice into a good life and into the church, from the Hudson to the Chesapeake. His singular yet most effective life will ever remain a marvel, if not a mystery."

Rev. ABBOTT became ill in February, 1795. He returned home in May of that year, and although he recovered enough to preach locally, he was never able to return to the circuit again. He died on Sunday, August 14, 1796. He lies buried in the churchyard behind the First Methodist Church, Walnut Street, Salem, New Jersey.

I first heard of this man by a marvelous coincidence. One day at a church luncheon, our pastor overheard the church secretary call me by my maiden name. Mary has known me since birth and often calls me Audrey Abbott. Our pastor was surprised and stated that he had grown up with an "Audrey Abbott" in nearby McKeesport. I immediately began grilling him on details about this other "Audrey." I knew that my Father had relations there at one time. Well "Audrey's" father was Walter - and my Dad had an uncle by that name! My pastor did not know Audrey's married name, but he went into his office and called his sister to obtain that information. His sister remembered "Audrey's" married name. We looked it up in the Pittsburgh phone book - and there it was.

As soon as I got home, I called her. She was extremely surprised to hear from me. She is my Dad's first cousin, and they never knew each other. But strangest of all was that she is the mother of two daughters and is an English teacher - I am the mother of two daughters and was an English teacher! Audrey knew very little about the family history - I was able to provide her with much information. She did have one interesting fact to tell me. According to her father, we had an ancestor named Benjamin Abbott, who had been a Methodist itinerant preacher who had written a book!!

The next day I flew to the library and the rest is history. I have uncovered a great deal about Rev. ABBOTT's ministry and something about his life. I have read his journal and visited his grave in Salem, New Jersey.

Rev. Abbott and his wife Mary had 9 known children. The information on them is sketchy:

1. Benjamin - d. about 1780, aged 14 years
2. Martha - b. about 1758
3. Rebecca - b. July 13, 1763; d. July 10, 1828; m. Thomas

SMITH, a local M.E. minister; removed from Salem Co., NJ to Franklin Co., Indiana about 1816. He was b. Salem Co., Nov. 23, 1769; d. Sept. 26, 1832. Both are buried in the cemetery of Ebenezer M.E. Church, Franklin Co., Indiana.

4. David (1) - a M.E. minister, serving in South Jersey and on the Kent, Maryland Circuit about 1780, on the Dover, Delaware Circuit in 1782; retired as a travelling minister in 1784, and afterwards preached mostly in South Jersey. His will dated May 25, 1784, proved Jan. 2, 1798, mentions no children and leaves all his estate to his widow, Ann; at the time he made the will he was living in Lower Penns Neck Twp., Salem Co.; when his father died in 1796, he was living in Upper Alloways Creek, Salem Co.; the following year he was a merchant in Crosswick's, NJ; had a son David Abbott (2) ?

[David Abbott, Jr. is mentioned as a probationer from 1793 to 1809 in Jesse Lee's A Short History of the Methodists in the U.S. 1766 - 1809 (1810). John Lednum's A History of the Rise of Methodism in America Containing Sketches of Methodist Itinerant Preachers from 1736 - 1785 (1859) mentions Rev. Benjamin Abbott's grandson "who lives at Old Chester, Pennsylvania, who has long walked in the steps of his father and grandfather." In 1830, a David Abbott was involved in the formation of the Asbury Chapel in Chester, Delaware Co., PA. David Abbott appears on the PA Census for Delaware County for 1830, 1840, and 1850. In 1850, he is listed as age 59 (b. 1791?) and his occupation is given as saddler. His wife is Susannah age 60 born in PA. At this point, I do not have a true fix on this David. Is he my ancestor?]

5. Hannah - a witness to the will of her brother, David, being then unmarried.

6. _____ (daughter) - m. _____ SHAW; they had a daughter, Keziah, who m. Rev. S.S. BELVILLE, M.E. minister. Keziah had two sons, Samuel S. and William W.; Samuel S. was a M.E. minister in NJ, but later moved to Philadelphia where he died around 1880-90. His widow is said to have been living at 348 North 42nd Street in Philadelphia in 1895. William W. was a local M.E. minister living somewhere in the West; he is said to have had possession of the old family Bible of Rev. Benjamin ABBOTT.

7. Mary - m. _____ RHEA, they had a son, David; she m. 2nd _____ THOMPSON; both marriages taking place in Salem Co.; Mary and THOMPSON had two children, Israel and Jacob; moved to Lansing, Tompkins Co., NY; both died there. Mary's son, David RHEA, married in NY, and is said to have removed to some place in Ohio. Nothing is known of Israel THOMPSON, but Jacob THOMPSON lived and died in Tompkins Co., NY.

8. Elisha - all that is known about him is the short reference contained in Reminiscences of Methodism in West New Jersey by Raybold, pp. 43-44; from this it appears that he was a "young man" during the time of the Revolutionary War.

9. James - youngest child, went to western NY, probably Tompkins Co. where his sister Mary lived; m. Charlotte EVANS "near Cayuga Lake." Mormon Records state that James ABBOTT and Charlotte EVENS or EVINS were m. in Salem, NJ on August 23, 1798. They removed about 1816 to Franklin Co., Indiana, where his sister Rebecca lived - or possibly the two families went together to Indiana. James and his family lived on a farm in Franklin Co. until 1826, when they moved to Rushville, Indiana. In 1828, they moved to Tippecanoe Co., Ind., where they purchased a farm 15 miles northwest of Lafayette. James d. from cancer on his face; he and his wife are buried on the farm of his son, Benjamin, near Battle Ground, Tippecanoe Co.; he was a farmer and carpenter.

MISCELLANEOUS DATA FROM AUDREY IACONE

JAMES ABBOTT, the well-known painting contractor of Gloucester, Mass., is a resident of Rockport, where he was born February 26, 1864, being the only son of Eben G. and Elizabeth (Rowe) Abbott. His father was a native of Rockport, as was also his paternal grandfather, both bearing the name of Eben G. Abbott. His great-grandfather, William Abbott, a citizen of this town, was a Revolutionary soldier. The Abbott and Rowe families are of English origin.

Eben G. Abbott, second, James Abbott's father, was prominent in the business circles of Rockport and Gloucester. For several years he served as president of the Granite Savings Bank of Rockport and as a director of the Rockport National Bank. In 1870 he engaged in the painting business in Gloucester, carrying it on alone until 1884, when he admitted his son to partnership, continuing actively connected with the firm until 1894. He died October 3, 1896. He was a generous, public-spirited citizen, ever ready with his aid and influence to forward any movement calculated to be of benefit to the town. In politics he was a Republican. He was an active Mason and Odd Fellow and an honorary member of the Grand Army of the Republic. For years he was one of the leading members of the Methodist Episcopal church, contributing liberally toward its support, and serving as its treasurer and superintendent of the Sunday school. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth R. Abbott, who is a native of this town, and resides here. Her children are both living, namely: James, the subject of this sketch; and Lucy A., wife of Loring Cook, of Gloucester.

James Abbott in his youth, after attending the public schools, completed his studies with a commercial course at Bryant & Stratton's Business College, Boston. He learned the painting business with his father, who admitted him to partnership, as above stated; and since 1894 he has been sole proprietor. He is engaged principally in contracting for the painting of vessels, and during the busy season he employs a large force of workmen. In 1895 he also engaged with his cousin, Freeman H. Abbott, in the ice business in Gloucester, under the firm name of F. H. Abbott & Co., their plant being situated at Cape Pond. For a number of years Mr. James Abbott has been a trustee of the Granite Savings Bank; and in January, 1897, he was elected to the Board of Directors of the Rockport National Bank. At the present time he is serving as Senior Warden of Ashler Lodge, A. F. & A. M., and is Past Grand of Granite Lodge, I. O. O. F. He is also a member of Bethlehem Commandery, Knights Templars, and an associate member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Mr. Abbott married Susan G. Dennis, daughter of John G. Dennis, late of Rockport. Four children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Abbott, and three of them are now living; namely, James Norman, Eben Raymond, and Susie Elizabeth Abbott. One daughter, Lucy Dennis Abbott, died December 13, 1892, at the age of four years.

*NOTE: Audrey wants to let you know the Cincinnati Historical Society, Eden Park, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202 has the Amos Shinkle ABBOTT family papers, 1520-1971. This collection consists of 11 boxes of documents - much of the material pertains to the family of James ABBOTT, of Somersetshire, England. The Society staff will do research, but it is costly. Also, there is such a vast amount of material, it would be best to examine the documents in person.

FROM IRENE AND GLENN MITCHELL

Taken from the note book of Ethel Wallace Wiac. (deseased) in poss. of Glenn Mitchell, 632 Middle Rincon Rd., Santa Rosa, Calif. 95405 (1 Dec 1983)

Related by Harriet Abbott Walker 1947 when she was 92 yrs old.

Uncle Will Abbott, Aunt Connelia and 4 children were the first of our folks that came west. Uncle Wesley Doule came with them. There were 2 families of us came in the spring of 1857. Our family consisted of father, mother, and 4 children-- I was 1½ years old. With grandfather and grndmother Abbott there were Dan, Chet, Hulda Dickerson and Linda Hotchkiss. We came by train as far as Chicago. When the horses were unloaded mother said she wouldn't have recognized them; they had been so poorly cared for in the train. We had 2 wagons and were heavily loaded. Roads were at their worst and we encountered mud and more mud. One horse died on the way and father traded the other one for a team of oxen. Ed was recovering from pneumonia and should never have been taken on such a trip. He was fretful and notional. The boys walked occasionally and I teased to walk too. Aunt Hulda helped greatly in caring for me and keeping me contented.

We located in Oil City where we lived about a year. Father worked in the woods and at the saw mill. Our shack was infested with bed bugs and father remarked that either the bugs or mother would have to go because they couldn't live in the same shack. It was there while engaged in my usual occupation of following father around I fell into a puddle of water. Father got sick and told mother that if he died to sell the team and go back to Pennsylvania.

Next father homesteaded a 40 and bought an adjoining 40. and we moved onto our own farm. Alog house was built and we were quite comfortable. We lived into this until I was 12. We had a stove not a fireplace for cooking. Father usually had a team of horses as well as oxen. Both parents were wonderful managers and co-operated to make things go. They were determined their children should go to school and education was a must at our house. All 6 of us acquired sufficient education to qualify as teachers.

FROM IRENE AND GLENN MITCHELL

We all went away for some time to better schools. I attended High School at Sparta and began teaching at the age of 16. Father worked at clearing up the farm. Good logs were burned just to get rid of them. One winter father went 60 miles North and worked in the woods, measuring logs at $50 a month. For awhile haules mail and some freight from Sparta to Wilton (20 miles). Once I went with him for the express purpose of purchasing flowered cards to give my pupils on the last day -- I know a man who still has his card.

When I was 16, the railroad came to Wilton and on to Sparta (1871). Wilton began to thrive. It soon acquired a school, Post Office, stores and churches.

After living on this farm over 20 years they moved to another farm 4 miles away. They quit farming and moved to town about 1878. Uncle Wesley homesteaded with his house around 20 rods from ours. He married Hulda Dickenson when I was about 4 yrs old. He lived a year and died in child birth. Then Wesley lived with us. He married Mary Warren when I was 11.

Will Abbott homesteaded the Traciwell place in Spring Valley. He next lived a mile from Oil City on the Wilton Rd. Finally moved near Dorset where his wife Cornelia and his mother Belinda Dickenson died. He was in the army but not for long. He was in no battle but was granted a pension.

Edgeworths settled at Portage and later lived at Barron. They had a daughter Glorinda and a son Darius. His Mary Edgeworth was Elisha Soule's sister.

Glorinda married Benny Esterbrook, a fine man. We liked Glorinda so much. Mother had a letter from her after they moved to Barron.

This is a copy, word for word, of a pencil history, written by my father, Stephen Conger ABBOTT, sent to me several years after his death by Nellie MOREHOUSE.-- Signed - Abijah Conger ABBOTT

Pomona, CA July 10, 1930

Born May 25, 1825, I remember when I was 4 years old, we lived on the stage road between Dover and New York City, Morris County, New Jersey. This farm was a part of my grandfather ABBOTT's, who then lived in the old stone house and was then about 75 years old, and grandmother ABBOTT, a few years younger.

In 1819, my grandfather (Ezra ABBOTT) divided his farm of 300 acres, gave the land to Amie and Abijah, and stock and money to the other children, sold his farm, 160 acres, to Mr. John CONGER, and moved to Tennessee near Knoxville, and in less than one year from the time they left, they had returned and rented the same land they had sold, and for 31 years following, remained as tenants on the same farm. In 1830, grandfather moved to Busti, Chataqua County, New York. Of the eleven children, I was the fourth. I was named Stephen (no reference to that Martyr - Act 6, Chap. 5), but my mother's brother, Stephen CONGER. 1831, I was six years old, went to school three months. Phoebe CONGER, my cousin teacher rented a room in a farm house and Ira, about 8, Stephen 6, John about 4 years. Father paid our tuition working at 50 cents per day for her father. During these three months, John and Stephen learned the Alphabet.

In March before I was 9 years old, my brother John and I were playing on the ice on the canal that passed through the farm where we lived, about 40 or 50 rods from the house.

The ice had been thick and safe, but a spring in the bank had thawed a place and where there was clear water, John, 7 years old, got a stick and punching after fish, fell in. I was close by, but he went down and when he came up I could not reach him. I ran ashore, got a stick. After awhile he came again and seemed to be dead. I hooked the stick in his clothes and pulled him to the bank, and could not lift him, but rolled him out and up the bank, lifeless.

I was frightened for we had been forbidden playing on the canal, as the ice was melting. I concluded he had his mouth open and had run full of water, so I turned his head downhill, and rolled him over and shook him to get the water out, and sure enough after awhile he began to strangle and breathe, and was alive. Though a cold day in March, as he was wet we were afraid to go home, and stayed an hour or more for the sun to dry his clothes until he was freezing, then we were obliged to go home.

When I was 9 years old, I worked 5 months for Manning Rutan for my board and a suit of clothes. Rutan was a grocer, owned the house and store he occupied. His wife, a retired school teacher. They had been married 15 years, no children. My work was to drive a cow to pasture and bring her back about sunset, and weed the garden, bring wood and water, and go on errands for Mrs. Rutan. She was a good woman, never scolded me, but often gave me little presents and made a suit of clothes of nankeen, and trimmed with braid and bright brass buttons. I also swept the store and lit the candles, a bottle with sulphur and phosphorous, and perhaps other substances, put a pine splinter in it exposed to air would ignite; matches were not yet invented. My father had a tinder box with dry punk, or charred linen to catch the spark, then fine cedar or pine splint with sulphur on it catch the fire.

"ALL ABOUT ABBOTTS"

SPRING 1989

Publisher: Margaret Fenton Gardner, P.O. Box 430, Midway, Utah 84049-0430
(801) 654-4336

Dear Abbott researchers:

After several trips to Salt Lake, I'm again ready to go with another newsletter. By the way, the library in Salt Lake City now has much material on computers, and I will be obtaining some printouts on the name ABBOTT, which I will share with you in the future issues. I love this modern technology. It's so much faster and easier now.

FROM OUR SUBSCRIBERS

CURTIS W. ABBOTT, 1 QUEENS DR., SOUTH, NEWARK, OHIO 43055-2244

Curtis is still seeking information on Nathan ABBOTT Jr., son of Nathan and Lydia (HATCH) ABBOTT, of Stockbridge, Windsor Co., Vermont, who had upwards of nine children. He has found only three. Curtis would like to correspond with descendants of either Nathan.

KENNETH K. ABBOTT, 3434 STANFIELD DR., PARMA, OHIO 44134

Kenneth's line is from his father, John M. ABBOTT, b. 26 Sep 1899, NY, d. 10 Nov 1976, Ohio, md. 24 Jan 1921, Lillian M. VERRAN, back through the PLANCK, CHANDLER, SALUSBURY, COOPER lines on the maternal side, and ABBOTT, FORTE, MORSE, TUCKER lines on the paternal side, in Connecticut, New York and New Jersey areas.

He has a large file on New York and Connecticut ABBOTTS, and some Massachusetts ABBOTTS. He thinks he has a connection with Elijah W. ABBOTT with Ezra ABBOTT, but has no primary source. He'd like to correspond with anyone working on New York to Connecticut connections.

Kenneth thinks it would be nice to have more research done on the ABBOTT surname in this country. He says there is only one two or three volume set, by a Major Lemuel ABBOTT in Massachusetts, and he'd be interested in compiling a new volume if he had access to all material obtained since Lemuel published his.

ROBERT F. ABBOTT, 1109 KENESAW, JONESBORO, AR 72401

Robert's father was Henry Preston ABBOTT, Sr., b. 27 Apr 1897, of Nashville, Tennessee. Grandfather was Henry Harrison ABBOTT, b. 1845, of Benton Co., Tennessee and Nashville, Tennessee in post Civil War years. Greatgrandfather was James ABOT. According to the 1850 Tennessee census -

ABOT, James 54, Maria 35, Elizabeth 13, James 10, Henry 6, William 4.

WILLIAM H. ABBOTT, P.O. BOX 1007, MIDLOTHIAN, TEXAS 76065

Bill has been searching for a long time, trying to discover the parents of Harrison E. ABBOTT, born ca 1812, who, if not born in Georgia, spent most of his life there. He suspects a nearby Peter J. ABBOTT and an Ezekiel ABBOTT may have been Georgia relatives. On page 15 of the Spring 1988 issue, an Elijah ABBOTT, Harrison is mentioned as a Kentucky Revolutionary soldier, Virginia line. Bill believes this could be the father or grandfather of his Harrison.

Does anyone have any information on this Kentucky soldier, or his family?

GAIL CLARK, RT. 5, BOX 5016, BUHL, IDAHO 83316

Gail is looking for information on Mehitable ABBOTT, b. 1802, who md. Daniel DROWN, (b.1798) in 1820. Lived in New Hampshire. 7 children.

Also - Elizabeth ABBOTT, b. 1640-50, d. Boston, Massachusetts, 1706, md. 1675, Leonard DROWNE (b. 1646). 9 children. Elizabeth's father was Walter ABBOTT, who md. Sarah (?). Leonard DROWNE md (2) Mary ABBOTT CALEY, 4 Nov 1707.

It's interesting that the ABBOTT and DROWNE family spanned 2 centuries.

MARION ABBOTT GUNDERSON, RT.1, BOX 50, ROLFE, IOWA 50581

Marion seeks descendants of Albert (1810-1882) and Abigail (CUTLER) ABBOTT, through their children Sarah Lincoln ABBOTT, who md. William M. SHIRRELL, Lewis Lowe ABBOTT, who md. Grace VAN DUSEN, and Lucia Washburn ABBOTT, who md. Edwin Lewis THOMPSON.

Any of you have information on this, please contact Marion.

KATHALEEN K. KICHTY, 2810 GETTYSBURG DR., AUSTIN, TEXAS 78745

Kathaleen has contacted her Aunt Bessie Elizabeth Miller SCHAD, granddaughter of Helen ABBOT. Aunt Bessie is now 84, and yet "sharp as a tack". Kathaleen has been able to confirm her ABBOT/CALVERT information, and sends the following -

The following is what Aunt Bessie told me: Bessie Elizabeth (Miller) Schad was born May 18, 1904 in Danville, Vermilion Co., Illinois. Around December 1905 she moved with her parents and sibling just across the state line probably to Fountain Co. There were a succession of moves, once back to Vermilion Co., Illinois, then to Fountain, Vermillion and, Parke counties, Indiana, before they moved to Decatur Co., Kansas in 1921. Bessie remembers her grandmother Helen Abbot very well, for she said she thought at one time she could never love anyone as much as her grandmother. Bessie related to me that Helen Abbot was a mid-wife and a doctor of sorts. Bessie can remember going to the woods with Helen and collecting roots, herbs, and cobwebs that Helen used on people who came to her, either in sickness or in childbirth. Helen Abbot married Henan Agusta/Agustus Miller prior to 1879, and had Bessie's father and my grandfather, Howard Oscar Miller, and seven other children. Bessie stated that Helen Abbot was born in Kentucky and had a brother Howard Abbot, a sister who was never well, who died unmarried and left behind a beautiful book this sister had written in in gold ink. Bessie used to love to read this book as a child. I believe now that the sister was a half-sister. Helen also had two half-brothers, Wickliff and Jerome Calvert. Bessie thought that Helen's mother had married the Abbot and then the Calvert before moving to Illinois, but the census records confirm that Helen Abbot's mother married the Calvert and then the Abbot, for Wickliff and Jerome Calvert were older than Helen and Howard Abbot. Bessie's sister, Mabel Edith (Miller) Smith, (my aunt) had always maintained that we were related to Lord Baltimore. There were six Lord Baltimores, surname Calvert, so there is a possibility we are related but not descendent of the Calverts.

Bessie further stated that Henan A. Miller, her grandfather (my great-grandfather), who married Helen Abbot, had at least a brother Douglas Miller and two sisters, Net and Mary Miller. Net married Wickliff Calvert and Mary married Jerome Calvert. Wick and Net had three or four children, among them Wid, Arthur and Belle, which the census records bears out, except that "Wid" (probably a nickname) was really named William. Howard Abbot became a preacher and lived in Danville, Illinois, in the 1920's, in a very nice home. Among his children he had two boys who became streetcar conductors in Danville, Illinois, and two girls, Lottie and Gracie. Again census records bear some of this out. Bessie and her husband lived near Gessie, Indiana, and in Danville, Illinois, between 1926 and 1928. Following are the census records and I believe that the "Lucy H. Calvert, who married Leroy Abbot July 24, 1855, in Campbell Co., Kentucky"

(ALL ABOUT ABBOTS, Fall 1988, p. 79), is Helen's mother and father and my great-great grandparents. Some of those census records follow. Helen Abbot is placed in bold when she appears. The 1850 Census record for Campbell County, Kentucky, is impossible to read, so I am unable to find out to whom Lucy H. Calvert was married to prior to Leroy Abbot. In time, perhaps I will find out.

"GENEALOGICAL AND MEMORIAL HISTORY of the STATE OF NEW JERSEY"

Warren County Library, Belvidere, New Jersey

There have been since the early ABBOTT days of the colonization of South Jersey three distinct families by the name of Abbott in that section of the state. One of these is the family of George Abbott, of Salem; another the descendants of John Abbott, of Chesterfield, and the third, which is at present under consideration, the posterity of James Abbott, of Long Island. So far as is known there is no relationship between any of these families, nor so far as is known there is no relationship between any of these families, nor so far as the records that have come to light show have they intermarried with each other.

(I) James Abbott, founder of the family at present under consideration, was born in county Somerset, England. He emigrated to Long Island somewhere near the close of the seventeenth century, and died there leaving seven children—two daughters and five sons: 1. James, referred to below. 2. Isaac. 3. Benjamin, went to Pennsylvania. 4. Daniel, moved to New England. 5. William, settled in South Jersey.

(II) James (2), son of James (1) Abbott, of Long Island, settled in Salem county, New Jersey, about the same time that his brother Isaac removed from Long Island to the head of the Raritan river, in Hunterdon county, New Jersey. He died between 1763 and 1768, and among his children was a son John, referred to below.

(III) John, son of James (2) Abbott, was born in Salem county, New Jersey, April 8, 1758, died April 3, 1834. He married (first) Elizabeth Harden, who died February 18, 1787. He married (second) Rebecca Chattin, born September 29, 1764, died March 17, 1813. Children, all except the first by second marriage: 1. Thomas, born March 10, 1786, died May, 1795. 2. Elizabeth, September 8, 1790, died April 23, 1850; married Clark Webster. 3. Mary, October 21, 1792, died February 25, 1874; married William Murphy. 4. Sarah, July 16, 1795, died about 1887; married a Hanby. 5. Martha, April 25, 1798; married a Hanby; died about 1892. Sarah and Martha married brothers and lived near each other in southern Indiana. 6. Isaac, November 1, 1800, died July 1, 1835. 7. John Chattin, referred to below. 8. David, February 7, 1807, died April, 1854.

(IV) Hon. John Chattin Abbott, son of John and Rebecca (Chattin) Abbott, was born in Salem county, New Jersey, March 2, 1803. About 1830 he removed from Salem county to Mays Landing, Atlantic county, where he was for a time employed as a clerk at the Weymouth Works. Subsequently he became general manager for Dr. Schoenburger, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, where he had charge of his furnaces in the Allegheny mountains, near Hollidaysburg. He was a civil engineer and a merchant; he served for fifteen years as one of the lay judges of Atlantic county, and was for several terms a member of the board of freeholders. He died October 2, 1891. Mr. Abbott married, October 31, 1834, Ann Godfrey, daughter of William and Rejoice (Steelman) Treen; she was born in 1810. Children: 1. William Treen, born September 29, 1836; now a Methodist clergyman, residing at Asbury Park, New Jersey, and during the civil war chaplain of the Twenty-third Volunteer Regiment New Jersey Infantry. He married Rebecca Gilbert, of Burlington, and has Catharine, Stella, and William Godfrey Abbott, of Ocean City. 2. John Godfrey, born November 20, 1838; enlisted during the civil war as private, promoted corporal and first lieutenant, much of his time acting captain of the Forty-eighth Regiment of the New Jersey Volunteer Infantry, Company G, killed in action at Fort Wagner in 1863; unmarried. 3. Joseph Edward Potts, referred to below. 4. Clark Webster, born November 12, 1842; married Arabella Wilson, and has John, Henry, Albert, Florence, Sarah, Emma, Wilmer, Melvin and Clark Webster Jr. 5. Benjamin Treen, born August 6, 1845; a physician living at Ocean

City; married (first) Harriet Blue; (second) Emma Godfrey, who died a year later; (third) Della Corson; children by first marriage, Anna, married Stephen Little, of Camden; Elizabeth; Dolly, married George Parsons. 6. Rebecca A., born December 12, 1847; died unmarried. 7. Charles Tuller, born December 27, 1849, died in 1902; lived at Mays Landing; married Caroline Glover, and has Howard W., Bessie Glover, Mary, married Richard W. Towell, and has Richard W., Jr., Charles Tuller, Margaret, Edward and Adella. 8. Margaret Treen, born 1852; married Robert T. Kenny, of Wahoo, Nebraska.

(V) Joseph Edward Potts Abbott, third child and son of John Chattin and Ann Godfrey (Treen) Abbott, was born at Mays Landing Atlantic county, New Jersey, August 20, 1840. For his early education he attended the public school, after which for about three years he taught school, and then began the study of the law in the office of the Hon. George S. Woodhull, of Camden, who in 1866 became one of the justices of the supreme court. He was admitted to the New Jersey bar as an attorney in November, 1865, and as counsellor in June, 1870. From 1866 to 1872 he was the only attorney practicing in Atlantic county, and his law practice covered a very wide range, especially in real estate and corporation cases. March 7, 1898, at the earnest solicitation of Governor Griggs, he accepted the appointment of prosecutor of the pleas of Atlantic county. In 1903 he accepted a reappointment of the same position from Governor Murphy, and filled the office until 1908. He is a member of the New Jersey Bar Association, and of the Atlantic County Bar Association, and he is known to-day not only as one of the oldest living practitioners in the state, but also as the father of the Atlantic county bar.

In politics Mr. Abbott is a Republican, and he has been one of the most active members of his party in his state and county. What was known as the two term rule for members of the congress in New Jersey was broken by the election of James Buchanan to a third term largely through his efforts, and to his efforts was due the method of representation in the Atlantic county delegation which prevents the undue preponderance of a place like Atlantic City in settling legislative matters relating to the country districts of the county. Mr. Abbott has long been a great student of and is one of the authorities on numismatics and minerals, and he has been for over thirty years gathering a collection. He has made a specialty of American silver coins, and his collection is regarded as one of the finest in the country. His mineral collection of nearly one thousand species has among it some of the rarest specimens which were exhibited at the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia, 1876.

Mr. Abbott married, November 8, 1862, Adeline H., born March 27, 1836, daughter of Charles and Mary Gibson, of Doylestown, Pennsylvania. Children, both of whom died in infancy: Joseph Edwin and Wilbur Meredith. They have an adopted daughter, Nellie M., born October 28, 1885, a graduate of the public school of Mays Landing, and devoted to music.

"THE EXPERIENCE and GOSPEL LABOURS of the REV. BENJAMIN ABBOTT"
A Narrative of his Life and Death
By John Ffirth

ABBOTT, BENJAMIN (1732-1796), early American pioneer preacher, born in NEW JERSEY, U.S.A., the son of Benjamin Abbott, Sr., and Hannah Burroughs, in 1732. His father was a substantial land owner, his mother a "godly woman of effectual prayer."

Following the early death of both father and mother, he learned the hatmakers' trade in Philadelphia. In early youth Abbott had fallen pretty deeply into the ways of sin. Soon after coming of age he hired himself for plantation work in south Jersey, and there purchased his own farm and married.

Upon hearing a Methodist itinerant, ABRAHAM WHITWORTH, preach with simplicity and power, Abbott first knew his sins forgiven, his conversion taking place October 12, 1772.

He immediately began to witness for Christ and became the first native Methodist itinerant for New Jersey. As a local preacher for seventeen years he carried forward a most effective work of evangelism, church building, and organization of new societies throughout south Jersey, PENNSYLVANIA, MARYLAND, and DELAWARE. Herbert Asbury says it is believed that Abbott obtained more converts than any other Wesleyan preacher except JOHN WESLEY, GEORGE WHITEFIELD, and possibly ROBERT WILLIAMS. Joseph Sickler in his History of Salem has asserted that "as an exhorter and weaver of spells over his listeners, Abbott had no equal in his time or possibly in all the history of the Methodist Church."

The work of Abbott was of great importance during the Revolution. In 1779, there being no official appointment in New Jersey, this lay preacher unofficially assumed the chief responsibility for leadership in Methodism. Scudder has asserted in his volume on American Methodism, "Here New Jersey was his vast circuit, and he was the chief instrument in preserving the spiritual life of its societies during the distracting period of the Revolution."

The final period of Abbott's life (1789-96) came with his ordination and reception into the traveling ministry at the Conference held May, 1789, at TRENTON, N. J. He was appointed to the Dutchess Circuit, where in the next sixteen months the membership increased from a scattered few to nearly 1,400. Revivals broke out in every part of the circuit and four new circuits were added. Throughout the few years remaining until his death, Abbott continued to preach and organize new societies in NEW YORK, CONNECTICUT, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, and Maryland. The Minutes of the PHILADELPHIA CONFERENCE, M. E. Church in 1796, recording his death, say: "Perhaps he was one of the wonders of America. No man's copy; an uncommon zealot for the blessed work of sanctification, he preached it on all occasions, and in all congregations . . . He was seldom heard by anyone to speak about anything but God and religion, and his whole soul was often overwhelmed by the power of God."

ABEL STEVENS concludes his story of Abbott by saying: "He had led hosts of souls from the lowest abysses of vice into a good life and into the church, from the Hudson to the Chesapeake. His singular yet most effective life will ever remain a marvel, if not a mystery. An extraordinary individuality of character, sanctified by extraordinary endowments of divine grace, must be its chief explanation. They fitted him for a peculiar work, and he did it thoroughly with all his might and to the end."

HOWARD F. SIMPES

ABBOTT, DAVID GUSHWA (1863-1939), was a missionary of the M. E. Church in the Central Provinces of INDIA, now Madhya Pradesh State, 1900-1934. He began his ministry at Khandwa immediately after a severe famine, and superintended an orphanage and a refugee camp of a thousand persons. Subsequently he was at different times superintendent of every district and participated in the care of every educational institution in the Conference.

Born in a mining camp in CALIFORNIA during the period of the gold rush, he was educated at IOWA WESLEYAN COLLEGE and BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY. He married Martha Day, formerly a missionary in Calcutta and Moradabad. His older half-brother, Edward Newsom, had been a missionary in India for some years.

Abbott twice represented the Central Provinces Annual Conference in General Conference and often in the Central Conference, the Executive Board and the Mid-India and National Christian Councils.

Dear Abbott researchers:

I sure hope you've all been lucky enough to make it through the hurricanes, explosions, earthquakes and other events this past six months. What a time we've had! Hopefully, the time has come for us to all settle down and get back to our genealogy searches.

Correction

KENNETH K. ABBOTT, 3434 STANFIELD DR., PARMA, OH 44134

Ken states that the lines on page 2 of the Spring issue, are all his paternal side, none are from his mother's side. Sorry about the error, Ken.

He also states that the picture on page 12 looked like one of himself. Quite a handsome fella! More from Ken later.

MR. DANA ABBOTT BATCHELDER, 258 SOUTH SEA AVE., WEST YARMOUTH, MA 02673

Dana seeks ancestry of Sewell ABBOTT, b Deerfield or Raymond, New Hampshire, ca 1800/5, d. Raymond 1842, md. (1) Elizabeth WHITTIER (1805-1837), md. (2) Sarah (LOCKE) POLLARD (1809-ca 1854).

Children:

Luther, Daniel Brown, Ruth, Martha, Caroline and Sewell.

Dana thinks possibly Sewell was son of Peter ABBOTT, who died in Raymond in 1842, md in Raymond 1793, Miriam SMITH (1771-bef 1842). Peter may have been son of Joshua, who died before 1800, probably in Fremont, NH, md. (1) Hannah HOYT, 1753 in Hampton Falls, NH; md. (2) Joanna FULLER, 1766 in Danville, NH.

TERRY BROWN, 2899 ENGLISH WOODS DR., TRAVERSE CITY, MI 49684

Terry will share information on the line beginning with James ABBOTT, b. 1797 in Ohio, md. Rosa _____, who was b. 1805 in Kentucky. The family story states that five ABBOTT brothers came over from England, but she can't get back to them so far.

James and Mary had ch:

Sarah E., b. 1827; Allen, b. 1829; William, b. 1832; *James Vincent, b. 1835 or 1837; and George, b. 1838. All were born in Ohio.

*James Vincent ABBOTT, md Nancy (THOMAS?), who was b. 1835, Indiana. Their ch:

George Dominicus, b. 1859 d. 1920, Muncie, IN; Lydia E., b. 1863; Flora, b. 1865; James William, b. 1868; Maggie, b. 1870; and Elinor, b. 1872, all in Indiana.

I would like to contribute to "All About Abbotts" the following information on the Ancestry of George Abbott of Andover Mass. I found this material in a Jan., date unknown issue of Genealogical Research in Germany and England. Titled by the above name, contributed by G. Andrews Moriarty, A.M., L.L.B., F.S.A. of Bristol, R.I.

(Several years ago the late J. Gardner Bartlett, a member of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, while carrying on genealogical researches in England found records that established the paternal ancestry of George Abbott, a settler at Andover, Mass. towards the middle of the 17th century, and compiled the pedigree here given, which is based on the English records brought to light by Mr. Bartlett and on sundry New England records. This pedigree was purchased by me from Mr. Bartlett, and now made accessible to readers of the Register. A short article entitled "Abbotts of Bishop's-Stortford, co. of Herts, England. Probable Ancestors of this George Abbott of Andover, Mass. This is also published in the issue of The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record for July 30, 1930, vol. 61 pp. 224-225. But as it is based chiefly on the parish registers of Bishop-Stortford and does not include the items found by Mr. Bartlett in the lay subsidies and court rolls, and as, moreover it traces the ancestral line to George Abbott only as far back as his great-grandfather, it seems desirable to print here the longer pedigree and more abundant material contained in Mr. Bartlett's compilation---- G. Andrews Moriarty.)

The earliest known ancestor of George Abbott, who came to New England in 1637, and, after living for a few years at Roxbury, Mass. settled at Andover, Mass., where he was the founder of a well-known family, was William Abbott of Bishop-Stortford, co. of Herts, England, who was born about 1470 and is given as NO. 1 in this pedigree.

The surname of "Abbott" is, of course, derived from the title of abbot, which was borne by the head of a monastery; and there have been numerous different families of the name in various parts of England, of totally distinct origins, as is usual in the case of family names derived from offices, occupations, or patronymics. Such surnames came into use in England about the time of Edward I (1272-1307).

The most distinguished Abbott family of England originated in Guildford, co. Surrey, a town about thirty miles southwest from London. Maurice or Morris Abbott, said to have been born in Farnham co. Surrey, about 1520, but of unknown ancestry, became a successful clothier at Guildford, where he died in 1606. Of the six sons, three became especially eminent. The third son, Robert Abbot, D.D., born about 1560, rose in the church to the high position of Bishop of Salisbury in 1615. The fourth son, George Abbot, D.D., born in 1562 became Bishop of Lichfield in 1609, Bishop of London in 1610, and in 1611 attained the highest preferment in the church when he was appointed Archbishop of Canterbury. The fifth son, Sir Morris Abbot, Knight, born about 1564, became an eminent London merchant, a member of Parliament, governor of the East India Company, and Lord Mayor of London in 1638. The Coat-of-arms of this distinguished Abbott family was "Gules, a chevron between three pears pendent stalked, or." Although there is no known or even likely connection between this Abbott family and the Abbotts of Herts, it is a curious fact that on the original Will of John Abbott, Yeoman, of Sawbridgeworth, co. Herts (a parish five miles south from Bishop-Stortford), dated 20 Mar. 1637/8, is a seal having a chevron between three small objects which are difficult to distinguish, but which may be meant for pears. (Commissary Court of London for Essex and Herts, original will, 1638, NO. 107)

Bishop-Stortford, the home of at least five generations of the paternal ancestors of George Abbott of Roxbury and Andover, Mass., is a thriving market town and parish about thirty miles northeast from London, on the extreme eastern border of Hertfordshire, adjoining the county of Essex. The parish is bounded on the north by Farnham, on the east by Birchanger and Great Hallingbury, all in the co. of Essex, on the south by Thorley, and on the west by Little Hadham, both in Herts. The place has been known for centuries as Bishop-Stortford, because the manor of Stortford has belonged to the Bishops of London from a period prior to the Norman Conquest. For centuries the parish has had a population of a few thousand, and its present inhabitants number about eight thousand. Grain dealing and malt manufacture have long been the largest industries of the town.

The parish church, dedicated to St. Michael, is situated on a hill, and is a fine, large, stone structure, dating from early in the fourteen century. A peal of ten bells hangs in the massive tower. The register began in 1561, although they are imperfect for the earlier years: and there are unusually valuable church warden's accounts dating from as early as 1431.

The descent of George Abbott of Roxbury and Andover, Mass., progenitor of a numerous New England family, from William Abbott of Bishop-Stortford, co of Herts, who lived about 1470-1532, is set forth in the following pedigree.

1. WILLIAM ABBOTT, of Bishop-Stortford, co. Herts, born probably about 1470, was living as late as 21 nov. 1532. The name of his wife is unknown.

He is first found in the records in 1509, when he was a church warden, an office which he held also in 1517 and 1518 as is shown by ancient churchwarden's accounts. In 1523 his name appears at Stortford in a subsidy of 14 Henry VIII, the amount of his assessment being illegible on the badly damaged roll. (Lay Subsidies Herts, 120/117, in the Public Record Office, London.) At a general court of the manor of Bishop-Stortford, held on the Thursday before St. Catherine's Day, 24 Henry VIII (21 Nov. 1532), Will. Abbot was one of twenty-four jurors on an inquisition. (Court Roll 171/37, in the Public Record Office, London.) These five records furnish all the information that has been found concerning William Abbott.

While no positive proof has been discovered that he had a family it is probable that he was father of at least one.

Child :

2. i. John, b. about 1495

2. JOHN ABBOTT (WILLIAM), Of Bishop-Stortford, co. Herts, born about 1495, was living as late as 1545. The name of his wife is unknown.

He was a resident of Bishop-Stortford as early as 1523, when he was assessed in a subsidy of 14 Henry VIII, for goods worth 40s., the amount of the tax being illegible. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 120/117.) He also appears in the following later subsidies: in 34 Henry VIII (1542-43), tax 3s. 4d., in 35 Henry VIII (1545-46), tax 3s. 4d. (lb. 120/160, 121/157, 121/171.) In a rental roll of the Bishop of London for his manor of Stortford in 37 Henry VIII (1545-

sent in by KENNETH K. ABBOTT, 3434 STANFIELD DR., PARMA, OHIO 44134

46) it appears that "John Abot paies for a tenement that he dwelleth in on the est syed of northstrete by yere xx d." (Court Roll 299 , in the Public Record Office, London.) As John Abbott left no will, the names of his children cannot be stated with certainty; but he was probably father of at least two.

- He was a man of good estate, and appears in the churchwardens account as paying poor rate assessments of 12d. in 1558 and of 4s. 4d. in 1566. In the autumn of 1564 Henry Parseley was querent v. William Abbott and his wife Margaret, deforciants, for a messuage and lan in Stortford. (Feet of Fines, Herts, Michaelmas Term, 6 & 7 Elizabeth.) William Abbott is also of record in two subsidies at Stortford, paying in 5 Elizabeth (1563) 10s. 8d. on lands worth 4 lbs and in 8 Elizabeth (1566) 5s. 4d. on lands worth 4lbs. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 121/202 121/208.) An abstract of his will is here given:

George Abbott succeeded to the homestead of his father according to the latter's will. His name appears several times on the court rolls of the manor of Bishop-Stortford. On, 13 Apr. 1577 he was amerced 3d. for fault of suit of court; on 6 Apr. 1583, 30 Mar. 1585, and 27 Sept. 1585, he was one of the chief pledges; and on 1 Oct. 1604 he was ordered to make two easy stiles in his croft out of Napton Field into London Lane before Hallowtyde (All Saint's Day. 1 Nov.) next, and so to keep them, upon pain of forfeiting 10s. (Court Rolls 205/21, 206/2, 206/3, and 189/30.) In 1596 he sold some property in Bishop-Stortford by the following fine: John Gace and Thomas Myller, querents, v. On 20 Sept. 1602 he was a witness to the will of John Gace of Stortford (P.C.C., Montague, 61), and in 1608 he was churchwarden. An abstract of his will follows:

6. GEORGE ABBOTT (GEORGE, GEORGE, WILLIAM, JOHN, WILLIAM), of Bishop-Stortford co. Herts, and of Roxbury and Andover, Mass., baptized at same 22 May 1617 died at Andover, Mass., 24 Dec. 1681. He married at Roxbury, Mass., 12 Dec. 1646, HANNAH CHANDLER, baptized at Bishop-Stortford 22 May 1630, died 2 June 1711, in her 82d year, daughter of William and Annis (Bayford) Chandler, who brought her to New England in 1637. She m. secondly, in 1690, as his third wife, her stepbrother, Rev. Francis Dane of Andover, Mass., who was baptized at Bishop-Stortford 20 Nov. 1615 and died at Andover 17 Feb. 1696/7, whom she survived.

About the time George Abbott came of age, he emigrated to New England coming, according to a tradition among his descendants which was published nearly a century ago, in the same ship which brought the family of Hannan Chandler, whom he married a few years later. As it is now proved that he came from the same place in England as the Chandlers, the tradition that he accompanied them may be considered to be correct; and therefore his emigration took place in 1637, as the church records of Roxbury state that the Chandlers came in that year. Doubtless the influence and preaching of Rev. John Eliot (I will add here that this may be the Elliots which were related to the Abbotts) were responsible for the emigration to New England of George Abbott(I might add an also other Abbott relatives), as they were for the emigration of many of the early settlers of Roxbury.

George Abbott lived for a few years at Roxbury, but, when a new plantation was planned at Andover, in 1643, he became one of the first proprietors and settlers of that town. He lived at first in the northern section of the town, but about 1660 he established a farm in the South Parish, (I might add here that a book called "Four Generations: by Philip Greven" deals with Colonial Andover, Mass. and the George Abbott families) part of which still continues in the family. His house, which was fortified for a garrison against Indian attacks, was owned and occupied by his descendants for seven generations, until it was demolished about 1860. During King Philip's War a force of Indians made an attack on Andover, on 8 Apr. 1676. The villagers fled to the gar-risons for protection; but two of George Abbott's sons, Joseph and Timothy, were intercepted in the fields. After a desperate fight the former was killed, and the latter was taken prisoner; but he afterwards escaped and returned to his home. The rest of the family reached thier garrison, and succeeded in repulsing the attacks of the savages.

George Abbott was not active in public affairs, holding only minor town offices, such as surveyor of highways in 1673 and brander of cattle in 1676; but that he was one of the most substantial citizens of the town is shown by the tax rate made on 3 Sept. 1679, when, among ninety taxpayers, he was assessed 10s. 5d., only six persons having a larger assessment. In a list of one hundred and sixteen male inhabitants of Andover above the age of sixteen years who took the oath of allegiance to the King on 11 Feb. 1678/9 appear George Abbott Sr., and (his sons) John, George, Jr., William, and Benjamin Abbott. (Ipswich Deeds, at Salem, vol. 4, fo. 237.) On 18 Nov. 1656 George Abbott, aged about forty years, deposed about John Perley coming to Andover. (Essex County Court Files, for) Apr. 1657.) An abstract of his will is as follows:

" The Will of "George Abbut" of Andover, co. Essex, aged and "crasey" in boby, dated 12 Dec. 1681. Considering the great love and affection I have unto my loving wife Hannah Abbut and the tender love she hath had to me and her care and diligence in helping me to get and save what God has blessed us with and also her prudence in management of the same. I leave her my whole estate for life, she to dispose of the same among my children, with the advice of my overseers, my eldest son, John Abbott to have a double portion. My wife is to be sole executrix, and my brothers-in-law, Thomas and William Chandler and my friend John Barker are to be overseers. (signed) George Abbott. Witnesses: Thomas Chandler Timothy Abbott. Proved 28 Mar. 1682."

The inventory of his estate, taken by the overseers and presented by the widow and executrix on 28 Mar. 1682, showed real estate appraised at 350 Lbs., live stock. 91 Lbs. and household goods and husbandry utensils, 46 Lbs., 12s., 5d., a total of 487 Lbs. 12s. 5d. (Essex Probate Records, file no. 43.)

The rest is a list of his children which is already known. I have also found a Genealogical and Historical Sketch put out by the Roots Research Bureau, LTD., 39 W. 32 Street, Suite 704, N.Y., N.Y. 10001, on the Abbott surname to be good reference on early Abbotts in America.

Dear Abbott researches:

I've made my final visit to Salt Lake City for awhile. It's getting so busy there aren't even spaces to sit at the tables, let alone work on the computers or machines. They thought they would have enough room for everyone when they built this building, but it is already far too small. During the Winter season of course there is plenty of room, in fact we were able to sit at the computers all day in December and January, but that is no longer the case. They've changed the Ancestry File to compact disks, and it isn't as easy to use as it was, but they've updated it so much there's no longer room on the computer to keep all the information. These days are interesting.

Clifford is seeking information on Harrison (Harry) ABBOTT, b. 10 Aug 1882, Fryeburg, Maine (father, Owen/Orin md. Harriet RILEY). Harry md 3 Jul 1900, Hashua, New Hampshire, Jennie RICHARDSON. She died Apr 1912, Haverhill, Massachusetts, had one son Earl W. ABBOTT, b. 1 Jan 1901, Exeter, NH. Second wife, unknown, possibly from Haverhill.

Harry lived in St. Louis, Missouri, was President American Shoe Stock Company from 1910 to 1918. He died probably 1940's, either in St. Louis or on business trip to New York City.

Clifford offers a reward for death certificates of Harry and son Earl, and second wife. Phone (603) 659-5334. Any help out there?

Kathleen has been working very hard on the ABBOTT line. She needs some help though in finding information on Sylvester ABBOTT, who married Ruth BLANCHARD.

Questions:

Was Walter ABBOTT the father of Sylvester? Who was Walter?

Was Ruth daughter of Samuel BLANCHARD and Ruth TENNEY?

Any information on the BLANCHARD, TENNEY or EATON lines would be appreciated, along with ABBOTT of course. More from Kathleen later.

Wayne, Indiana; the Genealogical Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped in Atlanta, Georgia; the Augustan Society Library in Torrance, California; the Dallas Public Library in Dallas, Texas; and the New England Genealogical Society. In addition, I send to various other libraries from time to time.

The Genealogical Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Box 88100, Atlanta, GA 30356-8100 opened in January. They include Braille, large print, and cassette materials for the blind; video tapes in sign language for the deaf; and a lending library of regular print books for the handicapped.

They employ young adults who are in complete kidney failure, and on dialysis so they might do something worthwhile with their lives, and learn genealogy also.

Anyone can donate their publications to the library, and in turn they will advertise this for sale in their magazine, "FREE QUERIES". This seems like a very worthy endeavor to me, and if any of you have books or other genealogy publications, please consider helping this organization.

If you know of any organization or library that would place the newsletters in their files for others to use, please let me have their addresses. I will be happy to place them on my mailing list.

ABBOTTS in Thetford and Fairlee, Orange county, VT

Kathleen D. Fenton

For some time now, we have been trying to identify the parents of Rheumma Leavering (or Loveland) ABBOTT, who married Horace Fenton on 4 February 1827 in Rutland, Rutland county, VT. We've had little information to build on, and most of that came from the handwritten autobiography and family history Horace compiled between 1860 and 1875. With the typical male superiority of that day, Horace traces the male members of the Fenton family extensively, but says very little about its female members. For instance, he talks of visits with Rheumma's family, but does not even mention her father's given name. And we learn her mother's maiden name only through reference to visits with her brothers! Picking out bits and pieces mentioned here and there in Horace's history tells us this about Rheumma's family:

1. Rheumma ABBOTT was born 28 May 1810 in Thetford, Orange county, VT.
2. Her mother's maiden name was BLANCHARD. Rheumma's father must have died early (probably between 1810 when Rheumma was born and 1827, when the newly married couple visited her mother, then living with another married daughter in Fairlee, Orange county, VT. No mention is made of visiting Rheumma's father.) Rheumma's mother, the widow ABBOTT, remarried to a Mr. SEALES/SEARLES and lived in Swampscott, Essex county, MA, where she may have been still living, at age 84, in 1870.
3. Rheumma's mother had at least one sister, who married a Mr. SEWARD and lived in Rutland, VT, and two brothers: Peter BLANCHARD, who lived in Rutland, and Nathaniel BLANCHARD, who lived in Swampscott, MA.
4. Rheumma's father had a brother Augustus ABBOTT; some of his children lived near Swampscott, MA by the 1860s.

There were Abbotts in Thetford and neighboring Fairlee townships, Orange county, VT, at a very early date (possibly as early as the 1780s), but every attempt to identify Rheumma's father among them led to a dead-end. Searching the 1850 and 1860 federal census of Essex county, MA, located no Seales/Searles with a wife who might be Rheumma's mother, now remarried. Then we found a printed copy of the 1855 Massachusetts state census of Swampscott, with this entry:

Scales, Cyrus B.	56, m,	No occupation listed,	born New Hampshire
" Ruth T.	70, f,		born Vermont
" Henry	23, m,	" " "	born New Hampshire

Given the unusual difference in their ages, it seemed likely that Ruth was Cyrus' second wife — an indication (together with her Vermont birthplace) that this might be the couple we were searching for. Confirming our suspicion was this marriage entry from Volume II of the Vital Records of Lynn, Massachusetts to 1849, p. 346:

SKALES, Cyrus, and Ruth T. ABBOTT, married July 16, 1835; intention also recorded

Here at last was the clue we needed! At this point, we checked the IOI at our local Family History Library, and quickly decided to order both vital and probate records for Orange county. This search (doesn't such a quest always?) proved both rewarding and frustrating, as we located the following records:

Scattered throughout, though, are other pieces of information, such as lists of those who took the freeman's oath in Fairlee (Walter Abbot jr. in Sept. 1795, Augustus Abbott on Sept. 6, 1803), lists of town officers (among them Walter Abbot jr., hay warden on 25 Feb. 1796; Augustus Abbott, surveyor of highways in 1815, 1820, 1822, and fence viewer in 1825), cattle "ear" marks (Augustus', recorded August 1806; Eliphalet's May 1817).

Which of these is our Abbott family?

Dr. WILLIAM ABBOTT

As mentioned above, Dr. William Abbott died at age 37 in 1815; according to cemetery records, his widow died a few months later, leaving as his only surviving child a minor, William Rodney Abbott (born in 1812). He could not be the father of Sylvester, who died in 1817, age at least 35-36. It also seems unlikely, since Sylvester was so poor, that a brother was able to find sufficient funds to study medicine, so it's unlikely Dr. William was brother of Sylvester and Augustus.

From KATHLEEN FENTON

TIMOTHY ABBOTT

A look at the 1810 census records indicates that Timothy is a possibility: the three males between 16 and 26 years of age might be Sylvester, Augustus and another brother, while the female between 16 and 26 years might be Ruth Tenney (Blanchard) Abbott, born in 1784 (aged 26). The female under 10 could be Lucy, Rheuemma's older sister, with Rheuemma not mentioned as she was such a tiny infant.

If this is so, we may have Revolutionary War ancestry here, because "A list of invalid pensioners who received pensions at the Burlington Agency, but whose residence could not be ascertained, due to destruction of papers in the war office in 1801 and 1814" is included in Soldiers of the Revolutionary War Buried in Vermont (Walter H. Crockett); this list includes a Timothy Abbott of Orange county. The DAR Patriot Index lists on p. 2:

Abbott, Timothy, b 10-5-1762; d 9-8-1831; m Sarah Smith; Pvt NH * (pensioned)

His death date indicates the likelihood that this is the Timothy buried at Old Yard cemetery in Thetford. New Hampshire records (101) list one Timothy Abbott, son of Nathan Abbott and wife Jane (Paul, according to Abbott genealogies), born 15 October 1762 in Wilton, Hillsborough county, NH. This Nathan was son of Timothy³, Timothy², George¹ of Andover. Timothy had no known brother Walter. Obviously, we should check his pension record and DAR records for further information on Timothy.

WALTER ABBOTT Sr.

The records indicate that Walter Abbott sr. could well be father of Sylvester and Augustus, as well as of Walter jr. His wife's name is not given in any so-far-located records. He was in Thetford at least by 1790 and possibly even earlier, if the birth records of unnamed male children listed in the 101 for 1781, 1784, and 1786, are to be believed! We did not, despite a very thorough search, find these birth records on the microfilm of the Thetford vital records, and would like to know their origin. Walter jr. was probably born before 1774, as he took the freeman's oath in 1795; he died in 1800, and his widow Catharine is listed in the 1800 census. Left with two young children, she soon remarried, as Walter's probate records and Thetford vital records indicate.

Another of those five males under 16 in 1790, of the three between 16 and 26 in 1800, and the two between 26 and 45 in 1810, could be Augustus Abbott, known to be a brother of Rheuemma's father, Sylvester Abbott. Augustus apparently married one Sarah/Sally Ray, who died at age 55 in 1844 (born c1789). Assuming that Augustus was not too much older than she (though he was presumably of age in 1803 when he took the freeman's oath), he was probably born between 1780 and 1783. Some of the later (post-1830) Abbott records in Fairlee and Thetford townships probably refer to Augustus' children. The 1820 census index shows, in Thetford township, Daniel Abbot, Eliphalet Abbot, Timothy Abbot; in East Fairlee, Augustus Abbott and William Abbott. There is also a Walter Abbott in Randolph township of Orange county; was this Walter sr., or was he living with one or another of his sons? The 1830 index shows these Abbotts: Amos in Randolph twp; Augustus and William in Fairlee; Daniel, Eliphalet, James, Joseph, and Timothy in Thetford. These, as well as the 1840 and 1850 Orange county census records, are still to be searched.

Was Sylvester Abbott, then, son of Walter Abbott sr.? There is so little information on Sylvester, and even less on Walter sr. Was Sylvester one of those unnamed sons living with Walter sr. in 1790, 1800 and 1810, with his wife Ruth (age 26 in 1810) one of the three females between ages 16 and 45, and daughters Lucy and possibly Rheuemma the two girls under 10 in 1810? Sylvester's meagre estate record indicates that he did not own much property in 1817; possibly he and his young family lived with his parents in 1810, and by 1820, of course, he was dead. Ruth was born in 1784, and since they married in 1802, Sylvester was probably born about 1780-85. He was probably still a young man then when he died before April 1817. Did he not take the freeman's oath because he owned no property? Where were Ruth and her children living in 1820?

From KATHLEEN FENTON

And who, then, was Walter Abbott sr.? About the only thing we can be sure of (if the 1800 census records are to be trusted) is that he and his wife were born before 1855, as both were over 45 in 1800. A search of available ABBOTT genealogies and IGI records (Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, and Connecticut) has not disclosed a Walter who will fit those facts. We have been unable to link him to the Abbott families of Andover, MA. There was a Walter Abbott who, according to the Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire, was a vintner and innholder, residing at Portsmouth NH by 1645. This Walter had children:

1. Peter, b by 1639; living in Portsmouth 1756 with 4 or more children (son Peter)
2. Sarah, m Thomas Wills
3. Thomas, b 1643; m Elizabeth Green; d Berwick NH 8 Mar 1712-3; blacksmith; had 9 children, including son Walter (b 1673; d 22 Dec 1740)
4. William
5. Walter, d at Jamaica, admin. granted to his brother Thomas 1675; other records indicate he had at least one son, John, who had a son Walter
6. John, b 1649, age c64 in 1713, 72 in 1721; d 19 Mar-5 May 1722; m Mary Hepworth; 7 children named in will, including son Walter
7. Mary, b c1652; m 1) Thomas Ouptill, m2) William Caverly
8. Elizabeth, m Leonard Drown

Obviously, Walter is a name which this Abbott line wished to perpetuate. Though at this time we have no information definitely linking Walter Abbott of Thetford township, Orange county, VT, to the Walter Abbott family of Portsmouth, Rockingham county, NH, it seems possible that he is a descendant and we should be grateful for any additional information on the Portsmouth family.

The DAR Patriot Index, p. 2, does list a Walter Abbott, born 1-1-1749; d 1-15-1823; m Persis ___; Sgt VT. This, of course, does not tell us where this Walter Abbott might have been born, nor who were his parents! Nor does it provide enough information to prove that this Walter Abbott resided in Orange county. Intriguing, though, is one of those later marriage records, from the Fairlee vital records:

At Fairlee, August 30th 1843, Mr. Orange O. Putting of Boston, Suffolk co, Massachusetts, and Miss Persis C. Abbott of Fairlee, Orange county, Vermont, were married by A. C. Smith, minister of the Gospel.

It's interesting to speculate that she might have been a granddaughter of Walter Abbott and wife Persis, possibly a daughter of Augustus Abbott.

Much of this, of course, remains speculation, and we would really like to hear from anyone who can add to the information given above.

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF PENNSYLVANIA

By John W. Jordan, LL.D.

Volume VII

(The Abbot Line).

George Abbot, founder of the American branch of the family, emigrated about 1640 from Yorkshire, England, to the colony of Massachusetts, being one of the first settlers of Andover, where he lived and died on a farm that was until recently in the possession of his descendants. The house was used as a garrison for protection against the Indians many years both before and after his death. George Abbot married, in 1647, Hannah, daughter of William and Annis Chandler, and among the thirteen children born to them was Benjamin, mentioned below. The death of George Abbot occurred December 24, 1681, he being then sixty-six years of age.

(II) Benjamin, son of George and Hannah (Chandler) Abbot, was born December 20, 1661, on the homestead, where he passed his entire life. He married, in 1685, Sarah, daughter of Ralph Farnum, an early Andover settler, and among their children was Benjamin, mentioned below.

(III) Benjamin (2), son of Benjamin (1) and Sarah (Farnum) Abbot, was born July 11, 1686, and passed his life on the homestead. He married (first) in 1717, Elizabeth, his cousin, daughter of George Abbot. She died in 1718, leaving a daughter Sarah, born August 13, 1718, and Mr. Abbot married (second) in 1722, Mary Carlton, who died in January, 1726. Mr. Abbot married (third) in 1729, Abigail, daughter of Nehemiah Abbot, who died December 8, 1753, surviving her husband five years. By his second marriage Mr. Abbot became the father of two sons: Benjamin, mentioned below; and Daniel, born January 9, 1726, died in April, 1793. Benjamin Abbot, the father, died December 8, 1748.

(IV) Benjamin (3), son of Benjamin (2) and Mary (Carlton) Abbot, was born November 1, 1723, and married, in 1747, Elizabeth, daughter of George Abbot. Among their children was Joel, mentioned below. Benjamin Abbot died January 5, 1770.

(V) Joel, son of Benjamin (3) and Elizabeth (Abbot) Abbot, was born December 4, 1757, and married Lydia Cummings, who was born November 26, 1769. Four sons and four daughters were born to them, one of the sons being Joel, mentioned below. Joel Abbot, the father, died April 12, 1806, and the mother of the family passed away March 5, 1813.

(VI) Joel (2), son of Joel (1) and Lydia (Cummings) Abbot, was born January 18, 1793, entered the United States navy, and served as a midshipman under Commodore MacDonough, taking part in the memorable battle on Lake Champlain during the war of 1812. He was promoted to a lieutenantcy for gallant conduct not only during the action but before, in discharge of hazardous duty. He also received from Congress a handsome sword and an appointment to the navy for his brother. In 1848 he was made post captain, the highest rank of the old navy, and was placed in command of the frigate "Macedonian," of the famous Perry Expedition which made a treaty with Japan and opened the ports of that country. At the conclusion of the treaty, in which he bore a prominent part, Captain Abbot succeeded Commodore Perry in the command of the squadron, with the rank of commodore. The onerous and delicate duties thus imposed upon him, together with his extraordinary labors in the interest of navigation in Chinese waters, impaired the health of the veteran, but when told by his physicians that a speedy return home alone could save his life, he said: "I belong to the old school of officers and remain at my post until regularly relieved." The government, which had already given public approval of his course in Japan and China, had ordered a relief sent to him, but it arrived too late to save the life of the old hero, who expired at Hong Kong, December 14, 1855. Commodore Abbot married (first) Mary Wood, of Newburyport, Massachusetts, who died April 15, 1824, leaving a son, Joel Wood Abbot. He married (second) November 29, 1825, Laura Wheaton (see Wheaton line), and among their children was a daughter, Laura Wheaton, mentioned below.

(VII) Laura Wheaton, daughter of Joel (2) and Laura (Wheaton) Abbot, was born March 10, 1835, and became the wife of Nicholas Francis Cooke, as stated above.

MERCER COUNTY, NEW JERSEY

CHARLES CONRAD ABBOTT, a noted scientist and archaeologist, residing in Trenton, Mercer county, New Jersey, traces his paternal ancestry to England, his maternal to Germany, and both are of more than ordinary interest. He attributes much of his success in the pursuit of natural history to the assistance and encouragement given him by his uncle, Timothy Abbott Conrad, who was a naturalist and geologist of renown.

(1) John Abbott, the direct ancestor of Charles Conrad Abbott, in the paternal line, and the first of this family to come to America, was born at or near Farnsfield, Nottingham, England, about 1663. He came to this country with William Watson in 1684, and settled on the present site of "Spring Lake Park," on what is now (1906) South Broad street. Five years later he purchased land a mile eastward of Watson's plantation, on Crosswicks creek. In the deed for this land he is mentioned as "wheelwright," but he was also a farmer. In deeds for the purchase of additional land he is mentioned as husbandman, and later as "yeoman." He was evidently possessed of some education, as he wrote a good hand, wrote the wills for many of his neighbors, as well as his own, and attended to other matters of this nature. He was a prominent member of the Society of Friends, and was one of the original trustees in charge of the land donated for a meetinghouse and burial ground in the village of Crosswicks. He was constable of Nottingham in 1691, overseer of the highways in 1694, surveyor of the highways in 1721. At the time of his death, in 1739, his plantation consisted of eight hundred and ten acres, extending from Crosswicks creek at the bridge on the Bordentown and Hamilton Square road to Pond Run on the same road, westward toward Nottingham (now Hamilton) Square. In his will he left the north half of his plantation, on which his son John was then living, to that son. A house had been built on this portion in 1730, and is still standing. To his son Timothy he left the south half, on which was the homestead, in which his widow resided from 1739 until 1754. To a third son, Samuel, he left a money equivalent.

He married Anne Mauleverer, born the 26th of the Second month, (O. S.) 1678, at Scarborough, Yorkshire, England. She was the daughter of Edmund and Anne (Pierson) Mauleverer. Edmund Mauleverer was a direct descendant of Robert Mauleverer, of Wothersome (1333). This family attained no prominence until the close of the fourteenth century, when Robert Mauleverer, great-grandson of the first Robert, advanced it by his industry and energy. His son, Sir William, married Joan (de) Colville, daughter of Sir John Colville, that "famous rebel and most valorous knight," as he is called by Shakespeare in the second part of Henry IV, Act 4, Scene 3. Sir William, by this marriage, acquired the Ingleby-Arnecliffe estate in Yorkshire, originally in the possession of William Ingram, 1090, and which, through failure of direct heirs in the male line, passed to the (de) Colvilles. Edmund Mauleverer died in 1679, and two years later his widow married Mathew Watson, and the year following came to America bringing her daughter with her. Matthew Watson settled a plantation on Crosswicks creek, on the west shore of the stream, and directly opposite to what later became the Abbott tract. Anne (Mauleverer) Abbott, by marriages of her ancestors, is descended from eighteen of the twenty-five Baron Sureties for the observance of the Magna Charta, 1215, this including descent from Edward III in several lines. She was prominent in Meeting, an elder in the organization, and played an active part in all matters pertaining to the secular or spiritual welfare of the Society. Her death occurred in 1754. John and Anne (Mauleverer) Abbott were the parents of ten children, nine of whom attained maturity, and seven of whom married. Of them we know as follows: John, who never married, and at his death willed his estate to his nephew, Samuel, son of Timothy; Timothy, see forward.

(II) Timothy Abbott, son of John (1) and Anne (Mauleverer) Abbott, was the proprietor of the south half, or homestead part of the estate of his father, upon the death of the latter. He married and had children.

(III) John Abbott, son of Timothy Abbott (2), resided on the homestead which he had inherited from his father. He was a careful husbandman and the estate was kept in excellent condition. He was actively identified with the mercantile affairs of the time, and established a line of boats from the "Landing" on Crosswicks creek to Philadelphia. His death occurred in 1776. He married Anne Satterthwaite, daughter of William and Mary (Osborne) Satterthwaite, of Burlington county, New Jersey, and had a number of children.

(IV) John Abbott, son of John (3) and Anne (Satterthwaite) Abbott, was born in 1748. He inherited the entire estate by reason of the law of primogeniture, and continued the business of his father, as well as farming the land. He abandoned the former in 1800, and died in 1809. Anthony Bullock, his brother-in-law, purchased the Abbott estate in 1826. John Abbott married Susannah Bullock, who died in 1835, and they had several children.

(V) Joseph Abbott, son of John (4) and Susannah (Bullock) Abbott, during the lifetime of his father, removed to a plantation which the latter had purchased in 1800 from William Watson, east of the original Abbott tract. He was a farmer all his life, and died in 1861. He married, 1805, Anne Rickey, daughter of John Rickey, a hardware merchant in Trenton, New Jersey. They had eight children.

(VI) Timothy Abbott, son of Joseph (5) and Anne (Rickey) Abbott, was born in Nottingham (now Hamilton) township, New Jersey, June 3, 1809. His early education was obtained in the country school in the vicinity, and he later attended the sessions in the Friends' School, which were held in the meetinghouse at the corner of Hanover and Montgomery streets, Trenton, New Jersey. While yet in his teens he accepted a position in the drug and hardware store of Samuel Paxson, in Warren street, near Hanover, and subsequently went to Philadelphia where he engaged in the hardware business. He removed to Trenton in 1835, and became the proprietor of the drug and hardware business formerly owned by Samuel Paxson. Four years later he abandoned this business and was appointed teller of the Mechanics' and Manufacturers' Bank of Trenton (now the Mechanics' National), and on October 1, 1840, was elected cashier in that institution. Ten years later he was made president. He resigned his presidency in order to associate himself with Cooper & Hewitt, then proprietors of the Trenton Iron Company, and was vice-president and treasurer of that corporation for many years. This connection was severed in January, 1870, and he again became the president of the Mechanics' National Bank, which office he filled until the time of his death, November 20, 1882. He was a man of great influence in the financial, commercial and manufacturing circles, and his opinion was highly valued, as he was esteemed for his many sterling qualities.

He married, in 1832, Susan Conrad, who was his cousin. She was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, December 1, 1807, daughter of Solomon White and Elizabeth (Abbott) Conrad. Her maternal ancestry is the same as that of her husband, and on the paternal side the descent is as follows: Solomon White Conrad, born July 31, 1779, was the son of John and Sarah (White) Conrad, the former a blacksmith by occupation. John Conrad was the son of William and Mary (Queen) Conrad. William was the son of Henry Cunrds, a farmer of Whitpain, Montgomery county, Pennsylvania, who was the youngest son of Thones Kunders, who came to America in October, 1683, from Crefeld, Germany, and settled in Germantown, Pennsylvania. He held the office of burgess in 1691. Solomon White Conrad was a printer by occupation, and later a publisher of note. He was appointed professor of botany and mineralogy in the University of Pennsylvania, in 1829, and died in 1831.

(VII) Charles Conrad Abbott, son of Timothy (6) and Susan (Conrad) Abbott, was born in a brick house in Broad street (then "Mill Hill") on the site of the present Turner Hall, in Trenton, New Jersey, June 4, 1843. His earliest school education was received in a school kept by Louisa and Rebecca Brearley, at the corner of Front and Greene streets, on the present site of the Ribsam building. He then attended the school of Mrs. North, on State street, and in September, 1852, was entered at the Trenton Academy, on Academy street, of which Charles Stone was the principal, and Mr. Bodwell head of the primary department. Three years later he was obliged to abandon school work for a time on account of illness, and resumed his studies in September, 1855, and continued them for a period of three years. He then entered the private school of David Cole, and later that of Samuel Farrand, and when this school was merged into the Academy returned to the same, and finally left in 1859. In the summer of 1860 he entered the office of Dr. James B. Coleman and commenced the study of anatomy with a view to following it by studying medicine. During the winter he attended the lectures on anatomy of Dr. Joseph Leidy, at the University of Pennsylvania. There was not much attention or time given to the course of reading commenced in Trenton, a great deal of the time being spent in discussing the natural history of the locality, a subject in which Mr. Abbott was greatly interested. He was student at the Academy of Natural Sciences in Philadelphia, in 1861, and there studied comparative anatomy. These studies were not pursued regularly, and he was graduated Doctor of Medicine in March, 1865. He was occupied for a time as a manufacturing chemist, and later as a manufacturer of wood paper, but tiring of the former, and being unsuccessful in both, he abandoned them. His strongest inclinations had always drawn him to the study of natural history, and heeding "The Call of the Wild," he began contributing papers on this subject to various scientific journals. In the face of innumerable difficulties, not the least of which was that they brought no material or financial results, Mr. Abbott persevered in his course. He removed to the homestead in 1874, and there found more favorable opportunities for continuing his lines of investigation and research. Two years later he received the appointment of "assistant in the field" of the Peabody Museum of American Archaeology, Harvard University, which entailed a systematic examination of the archaeology of the region about the Abbott homestead, and more particularly the valley of the Delaware river, in its bearing on the question of the antiquity of man in that section of the country. These researches were first reported in the "American Naturalist" and later in the "Smithsonian Annual Report for 1876," which made its appearance in 1878, and they reappeared in 1881 in the "Primitive Industry," wherein is discussed the existence of palaeolithic man and his relation to the historic and pre-historic Indian. These views were violently attacked by most geologists and archaeologists, but they won the day. Mr. Abbott attributes much of the success which has attended his efforts to the encouragement given him by his mother, and the practical hints given by his uncle, Timothy Abbott Conrad, who also resided on the homestead, and was a noted naturalist and geologist. He taught him the value of method in his labors, and the great saving of time which thus accrued. Mr. Abbott looks upon the "Abbott Collection" at the Peabody Museum at the University of Harvard, as the most important achievement of his life. In 1889, he was urged by the late Dr. Pepper, then provost, to go to the University of Pennsylvania, where he remained until November, 1893, and there spent some most unsatisfactory, and, as he considers, unprofitable years. In these latter days he is engaged in bringing together an archaeological collection at Princeton, under the substantial encouragement of M. Taylor Pyne, Esq., of Princeton.

Among the publications of Mr. Abbott may be mentioned the following: "Stone Age of New Jersey," 1876; "Primitive Industry," 1881; "Naturalist's Rambles about Home," 1884; "Upland and Meadow," 1886; "Waste-land Wanderings," 1887; "Days out of Doors," 1889; "Outings at Odd Times," 1890; "Recent Rambles," 1892;

"Travels in a Tree-top," 1894; "The Birds About Us," 1895; "A Colonial Wooing," 1895; "Birdland Echoes," 1896; "When the Century Was New," 1897; "The Hermit of Nottingham," 1898; "The Freedom of the Fields," 1898; "Clear Skies and Cloudy," 1899; "In Nature's Realm," 1900; "The Rambles of an Idler," 1906, and in 1907, "Archaeologia Nova Caesarea," wherein he replies in full to the objections raised to his views on the antiquity of man in the Delaware River Valley. This brochure is Dr. Abbott's final dictum on the subject, and he feels quite content to here let the matter rest, anticipating no controverting of his conclusions. He has also published a number of strictly scientific contributions to the Archaeology of the United States Geographical Survey, West of the One Hundredth Meridian, 1879; "Report on Archaeological Survey of the Delaware River," University of Pennsylvania publications, 1892; "Compendium of Natural History for Young People," 1890; and many others.

Mr. Abbott joined Company A, National Guards, New Jersey Volunteers, in June, 1863, and was in Pennsylvania with that company for the period of enlistment, being discharged in September of the same year. He has always voted with the Republican party, but has never taken an active interest in politics. His opinion is that a limited monarchy has many advantages over a republican form of government. He is connected with the following organizations: Member of the American Philosophical Society, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 1880; member of the Boston Society of Natural History, Boston, Massachusetts; member of the New York Academy of Sciences, New York; member of the Linnaean Society of New York; member of the Anthropological Society of Washington, District of Columbia; and fellow of the Royal Society of Antiquaries of the North, Copenhagen, Denmark.

Mr. Abbott married, February 13, 1867, Julia Boggs Olden, born May 23, 1846, educated in the schools of Princeton, New Jersey. She is the daughter of Job Gardner and Maria Brenton (Boggs) Olden. Job Gardner Olden was a merchant in Princeton, New Jersey, early in life, later became a farmer, then retiring from active business life; he held the position of treasurer of Princeton College until his death in 1876. He was a great-great-grandson of William Olden who, together with the Clarkes and Worths, settled all that part of Princeton from Stony Brook to the west side of the village. They were all farmers and merchants. A brother of Job Gardner Olden, Charles Smith Olden, was the governor of New Jersey from 1860 until 1863. Maria Brenton (Boggs) Olden was descended from the Boggs, Dunham and Morris families of East Jersey, many of whom were prominent in the political affairs of the state. Her descent is traceable through the Dunhams to Edward Fuller, who came to America in the "Mayflower," and the Widow Ford, who came in the "Fortune," in 1621, and married Peter Browne. The children of Charles Conrad and Julia Boggs (Olden) Abbott are: 1. Maria Olden, born December 28, 1867, in Princeton, New Jersey. She married, April 29, 1896, Joseph Paxson Canby, a farmer of Hulmeville, Bucks county, Pennsylvania. Their children are: Peace, July 1, 1897; Joseph Olden, July 10, 1900; —, March 14, 1907. 2. Richard Mauleverer, born January 17, 1871, is a farmer and lives on the homestead with his parents. 3. Julia Boggs, born August 21, 1874, on the Abbott homestead, Hamilton township, Mercer county, New Jersey, was educated at the Trenton Institute, and at the State schools, from which she was graduated in the class of 1893. Arthur Brenton, born April 1, 1883, died February 18, 1888.

GENEALOGY OF THE PURITANS

MASSACHUSETTS - CONNECTICUT

ABBE, JOHN, who was born at Windham, settled in East Hartford soon after 1700: he died in East Hartford, Oct. 30, 1790, aged 109 years.

ABBE, JONATHAN, of Willington, Conn., d. in 1760, and left children, viz: Anne, Mary, Jonathan, Samuel and Rebecca.

The Abbe's were also pioneers at Enfield.

*ABBE, THOMAS, was an original proprietor and settler at Enfield. He died at Enfield, in 1728, and left two sons, who settled there, viz: Thomas, Jun., b. 1686, m. Mary Pease, daughter of Capt. John Pease, 1714, d. 1745, had two sons, first, Obadiah, b. 1728, d. 1745; second, Thomas, b. 1731, m. Penelope Terry, widow of Dr. Ebenezer, d. 1811, aged 81 years, and left children: John, b. 1692, one of the first settlers of the upper part of "King's street," had four sons—John, b. 1717, m. Sarah Root, daughter of Timothy Root, of Somers, 1739, settled in the east part of the town, d. 1794, left two sons, who both settled and died in the east part of Enfield. Thomas, b. 1721, and Daniel, b. 1726, both died at Cape Breton, 1745, without children. Richard, 4th son of John Abbe, b. 1735, m. Mary Bement, daughter of Capt. Dennis Bement, 1755, d. 1807, left children. This name is yet found at Enfield and Windham.

ABBIE, SAMUEL, of Salem Village, Mass., freeman 1689-90. ABBY, JOHN, Sen., of Redding, Mass., freeman 1634. This was an early name at Cape Cod.

Abbey has but one coat of arms. Five of this name have graduated at Yale College.

ABBOT, (Abbott, Abbit,) GEORGE, a servant boy at Windsor, was fined £5, for selling a pistol and some powder to the Indians, and bound by the Court for his good behavior, and disposed of by the Court for farther service to his master, and to pay a fine, &c., 1640. He was in Court at Hartford, in 1647-8. In 1647 he was fined 12s. to Richard Lettin.

ABBOTT, ROBERT, was a juror at the Particular Court in Hartford, July 2, 1640, also Sept. 2, 1641: he was probably as early as any other of the name in Connecticut. Yet I find JOHN ABBOTT at Wethersfield, holding several lots of land there, as early as 1641. GEORGE ABBET, of Windsor, and John Moses, settled with the Indians of Massacoe,* (Simsbury,) for injury done to John Griffin of Windsor, by burning his tar and pitch, June 28, 1648; by the Indians conveying their land at Massacoe, except two acres reserved by them for their own use. John Griffin, Dec. 23, 1661, assigned his Indian deed to the Committee, who had been appointed to dispose of the lands at Massacoe, for the use of the town of Windsor. GEORGE

* Enfield began to settle in 1680, or '81, (the grant by Massachusetts to have it become a township, was in May, 1683,) and was incorporated in May, 1688. The town of Enfield was annexed to Connecticut, from Massachusetts, as were other towns, adjoining the north state line of Connecticut, as late as 1752.

From KENNETH ABBOTT

ABITT, Sen., and JOHN and JONATHAN ABBITT were all land holders in Norwalk, Conn., in 1687, George, Sen., was settled there as early as 1655. In 1672, he had seven children at Norwalk, and the town of Norwalk gave him ten acres of land for his service as a soldier. The Abbots formerly of Wallingford and Ridgefield, were son and grandsons of JOSEPH ABBOT, of New Haven, as early as 1681.

ABBOTT, PHILLIP, of Windham, m. Abigail Bigford, Oct. 8, 1723, and had issue born at Windham, viz: John, b. July 12, 1724; Abial, b. March 3, 1726; Stephen, b. April 21, 1728; Hannah, b. March 16, 1730; Mary, b. July 6, 1732; Zebediah, b., d. Dec. 2, 1731.

ABBOTT, JOHN, of Colchester, had a son John, baptized there Dec. 25, 1748: Sarah, baptized May 27, 1750.

†ABBOTT, JONATHAN, of Norwalk, m. Sarah, daughter of Lieut. John Olmsted, June 5, 1696, and had children born there, viz: Jonathan, Jr., b. April 6, 1697; Sarah, b. June, 1699; Eunis, b. * Simsbury, (Indian name Massacoe.) began early to settle by the white people from Windsor. Several families were there about 1648, and the first settlers fled, during a part of Philip's War, though it was incorporated as early as May, 1670.

Farmer mentions ARTHUR, of Marblehead, an early inhabitant. DANIEL, freeman, 18th May, 1631, of Cambridge, in 1634, fined 5s. for neglecting his watch in 1630. GEORGE, of Rowley, died 1647. WALTER, a vintner of New Hampshire, in 1640. Robert, of Watertown, Mass., freeman, in 1634, and several others, (see Farmer.) The name is spelt upon some of the records in Connecticut, "Abbit, Abbitt."

† Norwalk originally included most of the present towns of Wilton, Westport, and New Canaan. The General Court of Connecticut Colony, gave Nathaniel Eli, and others, an order of settlement, in 1650, and in Sept., 1651, incorporated the town. Though some of its settlers were there in 1650. Some of the early records call the town Norrwake, and some early records call Norwich, Norridge.

Jane, b. Oct. 5, 1716, and Mindwell, b. Dec. 21, 1718. This name and blood yet continue in Fairfield County and other parts of Connecticut. Thirty persons by the name of Abbot, and two by the name of Abbott, graduated at Harvard College, before 1849; and two by the name of Abbot, and three by the name of Abbott, at Yale College, before 1851.

ABBOTT, EDWARD, and Henry Andrews of Taunton, Mass., were enrolled in 1643, as able to bear arms, between the ages of 16 and 60 years.

ABBOTT, JOHN, and MARIA ABBOTT, aged 16 years, embarked in the Hopewell, for New England.

ABBET, ROBERT, had three lots of land early recorded at Watertown, Mass.

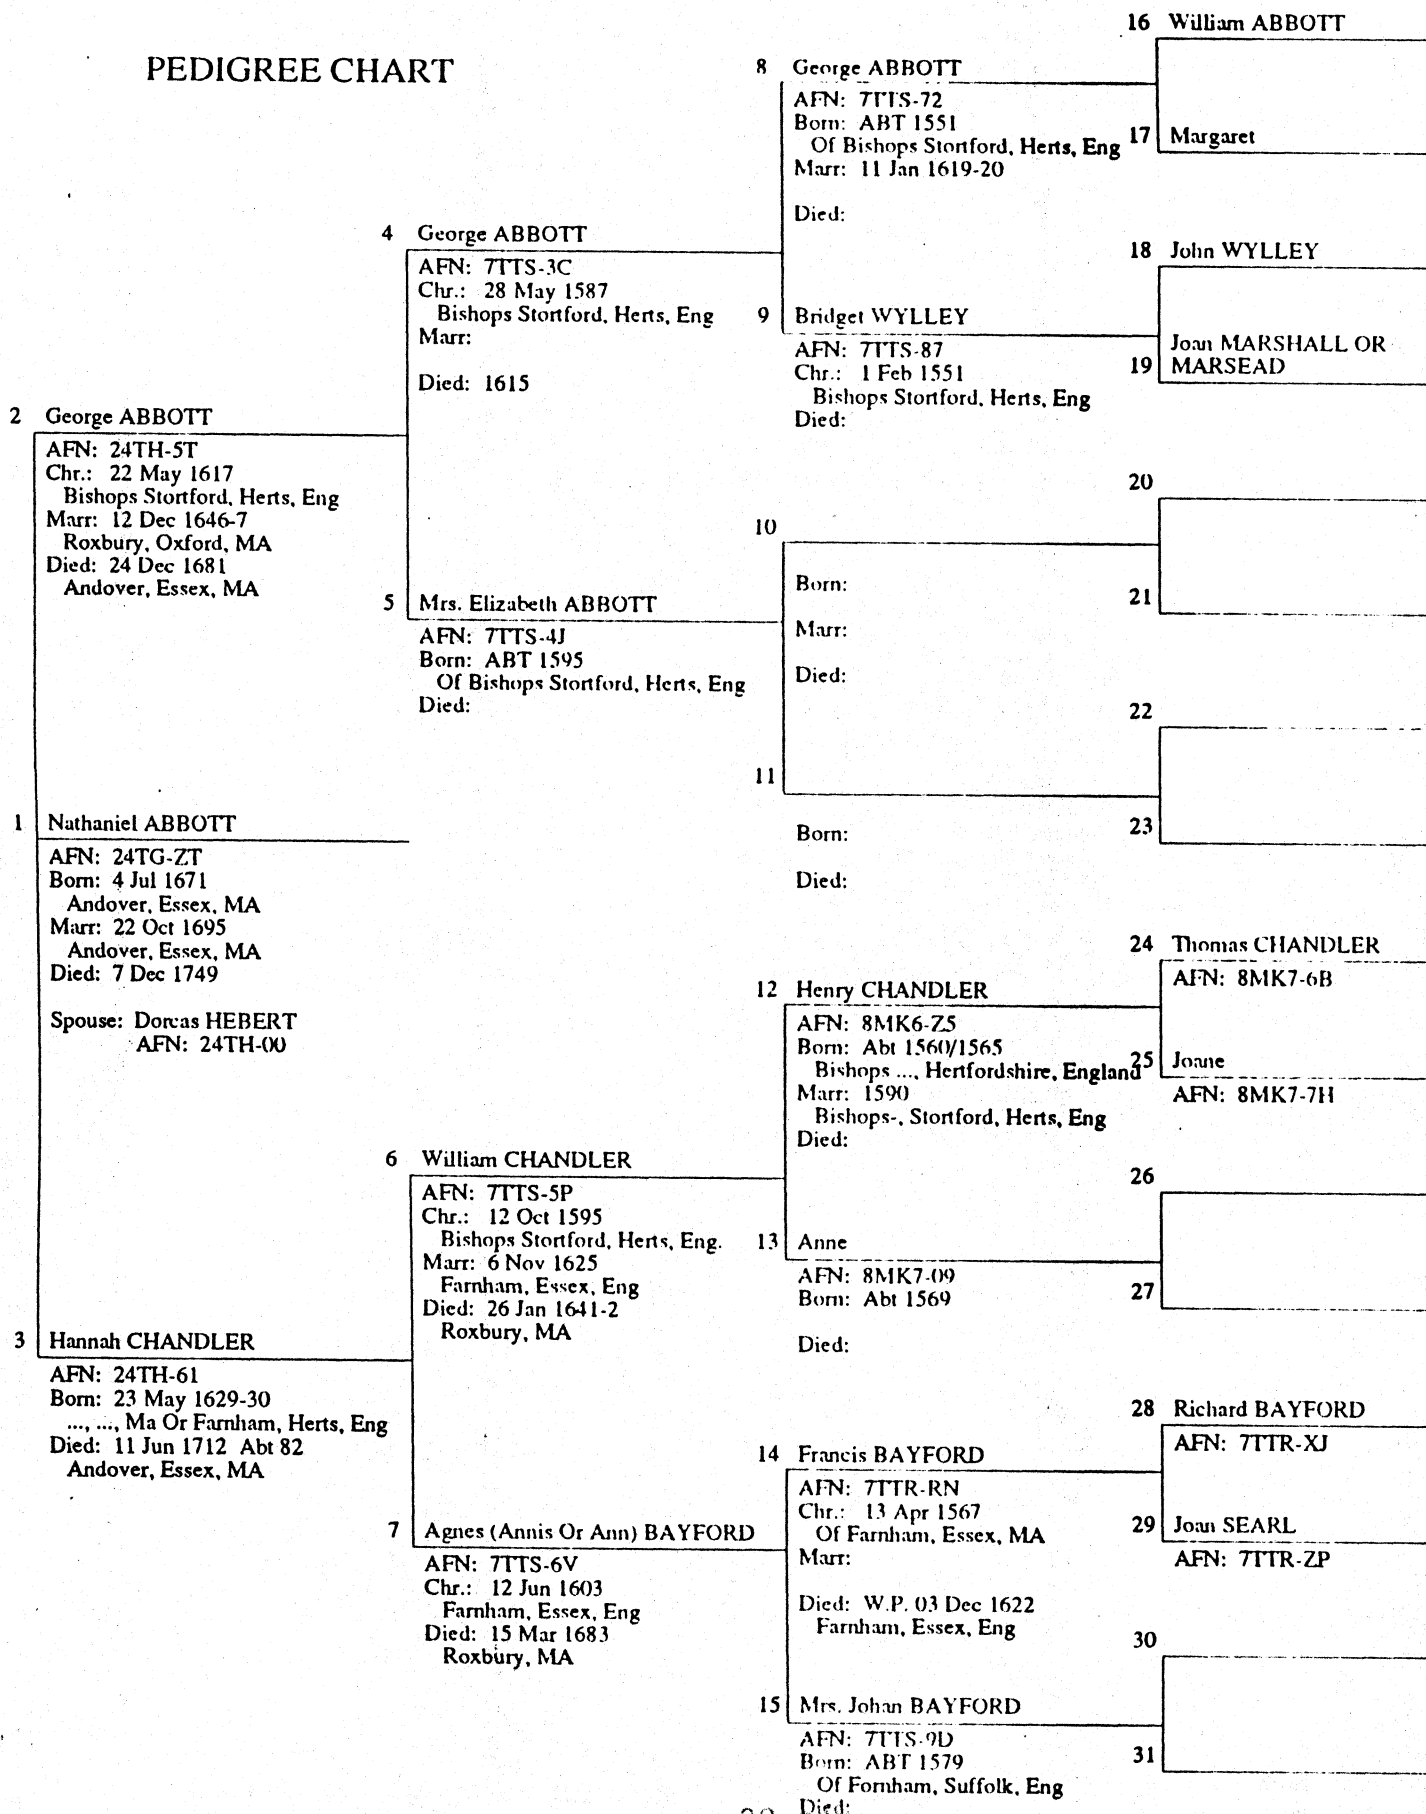

The Coats of Arms of the name by Burk, are—Abbot (Lord Mayor of London, 1638,) has one. Abbot, (Baron Colchester, of Colchester, Essex,) one. Abbot, (Baron Tenterdon,) one. Abbot, (Shropshire,) one. Abbot, (Lincolnshire,) one. And three other Coats of Arms for the name.

ABBOT, PAUL, of Andover, Mass., purchased lands in Windsor, of Richard Abbe of Windham, and James Richardson, in 1721, also of Nathaniel Hovey, in 1721.

Robert Abbot, who is found in Connecticut, and is mentioned by Farmer, as admitted a freeman in Massachusetts, in 1634, was probably the same man found a Juror at Hartford, July 2, 1640.

Dear Abbott researchers:

Another Winter is in sight, and we've had a little flurry of snow here, but it doesn't stay on the ground. The chickadees are back at their posts for the season, and their little songs are so welcome. It's nice to get back to the newsletters again. Hope you've had some help these past few months.

FROM OUR SUBSCRIBERS

STEVEN W. BAGGS, 4740 N. 28TH ST., #6, PHOENIX, AZ 85016-4832

Steven is hoping to learn more about the ABBOTT's from Trimble and Henry counties, Kentucky in the early and mid 1800"s. Anyone with information please help him.

RULA BARBEE, 4951 DIXIE BEE RD., APT. 10A, TERRE HAUTE, IN 47802

Rula is looking for information on Nancy ABBOTT who md William Alexander GUNN. When and where? Who were his parents?

Her only clues are Nancy's name in the old bible (no dates), and Nancy's wedding ring with William A. GUNN's name engraved on the inside.

Is anyone researching this couple?

KATHLEEN FENTON, 9459 SARGOSSA PLACE, COLUMBIA, MD 21045

Kathleen has done a lot of research on the ABBOTT's, and has donated what she found so far, to the newsletter, hoping that some of you can help. This is also my line, and I've done what I can at the Salt Lake Library, but there are still no definite answers.

Kathy's data will be included later on, but she wishes to know if anyone out there has anything on Walter ABBOTT who died about 1823 or 1824. He md Persis CUSHMAN, who was b. abt 1749 and d. at Fairlee, Vermont 6 Dec 1843, age 94.

Kathy believes that it is possible that their son Sylvester Cushman ABBOTT and Ruth (Tenney?) BLANCHARD may be the parents of Rheuemma ABBOTT.

Does anyone have a Rheuemma ABBOTT in their records anywhere. If you do, please write Kathy or me. Even if you have Walter, Sylvester or Persis CUSHMAN or Ruth Tenney BLANCHARD, we would appreciate hearing from you. Thanks.

REBA J. FULLER (CHANDLER), 203 "F" ST., TAFT, CA 93268

Reba needs to locate the ancestors of Hannah ABBOTT, b. in New York, died 1848, md Reba's gggrandfather, David CHANDLER, who died in 1845.

ALICE B. PISH, 311 GETTYSBURG RD., SAN ANTONIO, TX 78228

Correction

William and Polly ABBOTT listed in Pioneer Settlers of Madison County, date is 1815, not 1915. Census is 1850 not 1820.

Milo ABBOTT's (2) wife was Nancy Maria CARPENTER. Believe William was md twice, but not sure.

Wife at time of death was Elizabeth or Betsey.

BETTY SPRINGER REESE, RT. 2, BOX 195, WALLER, TX 77484

About 8 years ago, Betty found out that her mother, Ruth Jenkins SPRINGER had been adopted. She talked to her mother who said Betty's grandfather, Chester Frank JENKINS had adopted her. She said her father, Bert A. ABBOT was killed in a boating accident in New York City. This made the front page of the New York Times, but she's not sure of the date. The clipping stated he was buried in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Betty's mother passed away two years ago, and she is just beginning to accumulate information. She got her mother's birth certificate and adoption papers from her safe deposit box (copy shown later). The birthdate is listed as 2 Feb 1898 in Minneapolis. It also verifies her father was Bert ABBOT, age 25, and that he was an operator typesetter. Her mother's name was changed to Bessie RATZ, and her real mother's name marked out. It was altered 10-1-51 by a cousin Walter Lee who is also deceased.

The adoption papers state she was an orphan. She was not adopted until 1922, after Bessie Ratz JENKINS died. She was 24 year old, and this was also the year she was married to Frank Roland SPRINGER.

Betty is trying to find out what the family secret is. She has the entire SPRINGER family history if anyone is interested in this line. Please help Betty if you have anything.

BETTY J. WILEY, 14379 SHETLAND CT., WOODBRIDGE, VA 22193

Betty's great grandfather was an ABBOTT, born in Louisiana in 1856. His parents were married in 1849 in Louisiana.

"Citizens of Cumberland County celebrated throughout the year 1989. On November 21, 1789, North Carolina ratified the Constitution and became the Nation's twelfth state. With appropriate events, N.C. commemorated 200 years of Statehood.

The 1789 ratification Convention was held in Fayetteville. At that time there were sixty counties, including seven which later became a part of Tennessee. Each county was allowed to send five delegates; however, several counties had less than five to attend. In addition, seven towns were each allowed to send one delegate. By a vote of 194 to 77, the "Tar Heels" ratified the Constitution.

As its contribution to the special 1989 year, the Cumberland County Genealogical Society is searching for descendants of those 1789 delegates. The primary objective of the search project is to encourage genealogical research by locating descendants and publishing their lineage, thereby making the records available to the general public.

There was a big parade in Fayetteville in November which, among other attractions, included descendants of delegates to the 1789 Convention. A luncheon and program preceded the gala parade. Happily, many folks did come to Fayetteville to attend this special 'family reunion' and participate in this exciting and historic occasion on November 21, 1989.

Those who can prove a blood relationship to one or more of the 1789 delegates are urged to respond to this call. For a list of the delegates and more detailed information, please send a long SASE to Barbara Miller Gillis, Route 3, Box 478, Fayetteville, N.C. 28306.

WALTER ABBOT family of Thetford, VT

Note: the following pages were sent to us by the Thetford (VT) Historical Society. Since there is so little information available on this family, it seemed worthwhile to type them, as they appear in the hand-written pages, for submission to All About Abbotts. Internal evidence indicates that the papers date from the 1930s, and a recent note from a Society member indicates that "Mrs. Mary B. Slade compiled most of our records on families. She did an extensive research on Thetford families." We're quite sure that the second Sylvester Cushman ABBOTT listed below is my husband's (and Marge's) ancestor and would really appreciate hearing from anyone else who has any knowledge of this family. We presume S.F. = South Fairlee, T. = Thetford.

FAMILY BIBLE of Leonard P. ABBOTT

A handwritten copy of this Bible record was among those records sent us by the Thetford Historical Society. Leonard P. ABBOTT was b. 17 June 1822 at Thetford, VT, son of William ABBOTT and Caroline Matilda HEWES. The heading reads "From Henry W. Abbott, Lyme — 1934; Family Bible of his father Leonard." There is no indication of the age or condition of the Bible, nor can we guess its present location. Some notes seem to be added by the copier or later recipient of these records.

ABBOTT VITAL RECORDS

The following records were also sent by the Thetford (VT) Historical Society. At this time, we do not know who copied the records nor the source, but they as they seem to be a mixture of records on the Walter ABBOTT and Timothy ABBOTT family, we can guess that they represent a search through the vital records of Orange county, VT, and vicinity. They are presented here just as written, in alphabetical order. Again, we presume that F. = Fairlee; S.F. = South Fairlee; T. = Thetford; Str. = Strafford (all Orange co.); W/Wor. = Worcester (Washington co.).
